SUBJECT: 15 October 2009 Detainee Review Board (DRB) Recommendation for Transfer to Pakistani authorities for Criminal Prosecution, ISN 2505

1. I have reviewed the findings and recommendations of the DRB convened on 19 November 2009 concerning the internment of Detainee ISN 2505. At his hearing, he told the Board members that the proceedings were “bullshit” and to “fuck Americans.” He has previously indicated that if he is released, he will kill Americans. After careful consideration, I disapprove the DRB’s recommendation to transfer ISN 2505 to Pakistani authorities for criminal prosecution. Instead, I direct continued internment at the Detention Facility in Parwan (DFIP)—consistent with the finding that internment is necessary to mitigate the threat that he poses to coalition forces.
2. The finding that ISN 2505 is an enduring security threat is disapproved.
