MEMORANDUM FOR U.S. NAVY CHIEF OF INFORMATION

SUBJECT: Memorandum of Appreciation, Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC 59)

Please convey my sincere appreciation to (b)(6) (b)(6) for his superb assistance in the planning and execution of the JCOC 59, which took place April 22 - 29, 1996. (b)(6) served with distinction not only as an outstanding JCOC Project Officer in the months leading up to JCOC, but also as an enthusiastic and effective Escort Officer for his team during the actual conference. His attention to detail and his willingness to pitch in and serve helped ensure that JCOC 59 was a resounding success.

(b)(6) was an invaluable addition to my JCOC team. He is a great credit to the United States Navy, and I am pleased to forward a Certificate of Appreciation from the Secretary of Defense recognizing his efforts.

Awards this

Certificate of Appreciation

to (b)(6)

United States Navy

For

exceptional service provided in support of the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC 59). (b)(6) through his critical attention to detail, served with distinction not only as an outstanding JCOC Escort Officer, but also as contractor liaison in the procurement process in support of the program. His willingness to pitch in and serve where needed and, in fact, anticipate where he could best contribute, made him a standout among JCOC project officers. (b)(6) exemplary performance reflects great credit upon himself and the United States Navy.

William J. Perry

Secretary of Defense
