INFORMATION

In accordance with section 1126, title 10, United States Code, "Gold star lapel button: eligibility and distribution," the Gold Star Lapel Button is provided by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to identify next-of-kin of members of the U.S. Armed Forces who lost their lives:

- (1) During World War I (April 6, 1917 to March 3, 1921);
- (2) During World War II (September 8, 1939 to July 25, 1947);
- (3) During any subsequent period of armed hostilities in which the U.S. was engaged before July 1, 1958; or
- (4) After June 30, 1958, while:
 - engaged in an action against a U.S. enemy; or
 - engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force; or
 - serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict in which the U.S. is not a belligerent party against an opposing armed force; or
- (5) Who lost their lives after March 28, 1973, as a result of:
 - an international terrorist attack against the U.S. or a foreign nation friendly to the U.S., recognized as an attack by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned; or
 - military operations while serving outside the U.S. (including the commonwealths, territories, and possessions of the U.S.), as part of a peacekeeping force.

DoD policy limits Gold Star Lapel Button distribution to the: widow; widower; parents; stepparents; parents through adoption; foster parents who stood in loco parentis; children; stepchildren; children through adoption; siblings; half siblings, and stepsiblings.

Gold Star Lapel Buttons that are lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use may be replaced upon application to the Military Department Secretary concerned.

Refer to DoD Instruction 1348.36, "Gold Star Lapel Button," Service Flag, and Service Lapel Button," for additional information.
