SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY.

This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments (MILDEPs), the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands (CCMDS), the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

1.2. MISSION.

The mission of the DIA is to manage and execute specified intelligence and counterintelligence (CI) functions within the Defense Intelligence Enterprise (DIE) and the IC. DIA collects, analyzes, produces, and disseminates foreign military and military-related intelligence and CI to satisfy the intelligence and CI requirements of the Secretary of Defense, Deputy Secretary of Defense, CJCS, Joint Staff, Combatant Commanders (CCDRs), and the DNI. DIA conducts authorized intelligence and intelligence-related activities in a manner that protects the privacy and civil liberties of U.S. persons, in accordance with DoD Directive (DoDD) 5200.27, DoD 5400.11-R, and DoD Instruction (DoDI) 5400.11. DIA intelligence and intelligence-related activities are in accordance with DoDDs 5240.01 and 5148.13, DoD Manual (DoDM) 5240.01, DoD 5240.1-R, and DoD 5400.11-R.

1.3. ORGANIZATION MANAGEMENT.

The DIA:

a. Is established as a Defense Agency, pursuant to Sections 191 of Title 10, U.S.C.

b. Is a combat support agency, pursuant to Section 193 of Title 10, U.S.C., and in accordance with DoDD 3000.06.

c. Is a Defense Intelligence Component in the DIE in accordance with DoDD 5143.01 and DoDM 5240.01.

d. Is an element of the IC, pursuant to Title 50, U.S.C., and E.O. 12333, as amended.

e. Consists of a Director, DIA, who is under the authority, direction, and control of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security (USD(I&S)), pursuant to Titles 10 and 50, U.S.C.; E.O. 12333, as amended; and DoDD 5143.01. The Director, DIA exercises authority, direction, and control over DIA and all assigned resources.

f. Consists of a Deputy Director and additional subordinate organizational elements that the Director, DIA establishes, within resources assigned by the Secretary of Defense, or the DNI as appropriate, with the advice of the USD(I&S) and DNI.
1.4. ADMINISTRATION.

a. The Director, DIA is an active duty commissioned officer in the rank of Lieutenant General or, in the case of an officer of the Navy, Vice Admiral, pursuant to the President’s designation as a position of importance and responsibility in accordance with Section 601 of Title 10, U.S.C. The Director, DIA, is recommended to the President by the Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the DNI, pursuant to Section 3041(c) of Title 50, U.S.C., and with the advice of the USD(I&S) and CJCS.

b. The Secretaries of the MILDEPs assign military active duty and reserve personnel to DIA in accordance with approved authorizations and established procedures for assignment to joint duty, and provide facilities, logistics, and administrative support, as required, for DIA’s effective operation.

All positions will be assigned a designation using the relevant criteria found in Parts 731, 732, and 1400 of Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations, and DoDI 5200.02, and will be documented in the Defense Civilian Personnel Data System, or other authorized DoD automated system. The Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency Position Designation Automated Tool will be used to assist in assigning a position designation and to identify the background investigation required of the position.

   b. Establish and maintain an effective suitability and fitness determination program, in accordance with Volume 731 of DoDI 1400.25.

   c. Provide funding to cover requirements for personnel security investigations, adjudication, and recording of results to comply with the DoD Personnel Security Program in accordance with DoDI 5200.02.

   d. Enforce requirements for promptly reporting significant derogatory information, unfavorable administrative actions, and adverse actions to the appropriate personnel security, human resources, and counterintelligence official(s), as appropriate.

   e. In accordance with E.O.s 12333, 12968, and 13467, as amended, DoDI 5200.02, and Security Executive Agent Directive 8.

      (1) Authorize in exceptional circumstances, where official functions must be performed before the completion of an investigation and adjudication process, temporary access to a sensitive position in DIA for a limited period to individuals for whom an appropriate investigation is underway.

      (2) Initiate personnel security investigations and, if necessary, and in the interest of national security, suspend a security clearance for personnel assigned to, detailed to, or employed by DIA. Any action in this paragraph will be in accordance with DoDM 5200.02.

      (3) As the head of an IC element, grant access to sensitive compartmented information in accordance with ICD 704.

      (4) Grant interim clearances for up to Top Secret eligibility and access to classified information, when the requirements of DoDM 5200.02 have been met.

      (5) In the interest of national security, and if necessary, suspend or terminate personnel assigned to, detailed to, or employed by DIA. Any actions pursuant in this paragraph will be in accordance with DoDM 5200.02.

   f. Protect the security of DIA installations, activities, property, information, and personnel by appropriate means including the publication of necessary security regulations, in accordance with DoDIs 5200.01 and 5200.08.
g. Establish and maintain an insider threat program and comply with the requirements and minimum standards of DoDD 5205.16, to prevent, deter, detect, and mitigate the threat insiders may pose to DoD and U.S. Government installations, facilities, personnel, missions, or resources.

h. Exercise responsibility for the generation, receipt, custody, distribution, safeguard, disposition or destruction, and accounting of communications security material entrusted to DIA’s communications security account, in accordance with DoDI 8523.01, and other applicable DoD issuances and Federal laws.

i. Review DIA personnel and security records and conduct personnel security screening polygraph examinations in accordance with DoDI 5210.91 and Intelligence Community Policy Guidance 704.6.

j. Accredit DIA and DoD sensitive compartmented information facilities, in accordance with ICD 705 and Committee on National Security Systems Advisory Memorandum TEMPEST/1-13.

k. Develop and implement a program to oversee the security management, administration, and governance of all special access programs for which DIA is the cognizant authority, and provide security oversight and support to external programs that DIA manages at the request of mission partners, in accordance with DoDD 5205.07 and ICD 906.

l. Acts as an original classification authority for matters pertaining to assigned responsibilities and functions up to Top Secret information, in accordance with E.O. 13526. This authority may not be redelegated.

4.4. PUBLICATIONS AND RECORDS.

a. Authorize the publication of advertisements, notices, or proposals in newspapers, magazines, internet publications, or other public periodicals, as required for the effective administration and operation of the DIA, consistent with Section 3702 of Title 44, U.S.C.

b. Establish and maintain, for the functions assigned, an appropriate internal publications system for the promulgation of regulations, instructions, and reference documents, and changes thereto, pursuant to DoDI 5025.01.

c. Maintain an official seal and attest to the authenticity of official records under that seal.

d. Develop, establish, and maintain an active and continuing records management program, pursuant to Section 3102 of Title 44, U.S.C., and DoDI 5015.02.

4.5. ACQUISITION, PROCUREMENT, FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT AND PROPERTY.

a. Establish DIA facilities using appropriate established physical facilities and services of other DoD Components whenever possible to achieve maximum efficiency and economy.
b. Use the government-wide purchase card for making appropriate purchases of material and services, other than personal services, for the DIA when it is determined more advantageous and consistent with the best interests of the U.S. Government.

c. Enter into interdepartmental and intragovernmental support agreements, as the receiver or the supplier, with the other DoD Components, OSD Components, non-DoD Federal Government departments and agencies, and, to the extent permitted by law, State and local governments, as required for the effective performance of Director, DIA responsibilities and functions, in accordance with Section 1535 of Title 31, U.S.C., and DoDI 4000.19.

d. Enter into and administer contracts, directly or through a MILDEP, DoD contract administration services component, or other Federal agency, as appropriate, for supplies, equipment, and services required to accomplish DIA’s mission. To the extent that any law or E.O. specifically vests a contract authority in the Secretary of Defense but only permits the delegation of such authority to a Presidentially Appointed Senate-confirmed official, then the authority for such contracts may be exercised by the USD(I&S).

e. Exercise the delegated roles and responsibilities that are assigned to the Head of Contracting Activity to the official who is responsible for the selection and appointment of contracting officials, in accordance with the April 4, 2017 Director of Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy Memorandum.

f. Exercise the acquisition program responsibilities of the Component Acquisition Executive, as described in DoDI 5000.02, for DIA acquisition programs.

g. Establish and maintain appropriate property accountability for DIA and appoint boards of survey, approve reports of survey (or financial liability investigations of property loss), relieve personal liability, and drop accountability for DIA property contained in the authorized property accounts for property that has been lost, damaged, stolen, destroyed, or otherwise rendered unserviceable, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

h. Lease property under the control of DIA, under terms that will promote the national defense or that are in the public interest, pursuant to Section 2667 of Title 10, U.S.C., and applicable DoD policy.

i. Exercise the authority to sell surplus and foreign excess property in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 5 and 7 of Title 40, U.S.C.

j. Exercise the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense by Section 4023 of Title 10, U.S.C., to procure, for experimental purposes, the development of supplies needed for national defense.

| DIE Activity              | Designated by the USD(I&S) as a core activity that enables the Enterprise to effectively perform its defense intelligence, counterintelligence, and sensitive activity-related responsibilities in support of national defense priorities. DIE Activities:
  - Are of common concern to defense intelligence and/or security components;
  - Cover mission roles and business processes;
  - Are not confined to a particular mission, location, or organization; and
  - Are characterized by specific processes; skills; and/or tools, training, and tradecraft.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| foundational military intelligence | The detailed analysis and cataloging of order-of-battle, infrastructure and environmental knowledge to support military plans and operations. It encompasses core knowledge of foreign armed forces, unit composition, installations, weapons and equipment, and the military and civilian infrastructure that supports these forces, including telecommunications, transportation, and logistics network as well as military-related research, acquisition and production enterprises.                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| GDIP                      | An integrated capability, and the Director, DIA, serves as the program manager. The GDIP is part of the NIP, as defined in E.O. 12333. The GDIP is an integrated Defense Intelligence capability that includes DIA, the Service technical production centers, and special collection activities. The GDIP integrates and produces national intelligence for defense and national consumers. It represents the national Defense Intelligence priorities for operational customers, national and Defense-wide collection management, all-source analysis, HUMINT, MASINT, information technology, and Special Activities. The GDIP may include other NIP activities as agreed between the Secretary of Defense and DNI. Section 315 of Public Law 113-126, also known as “The Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2014” directed that the Foreign CI Program be merged into the GDIP. |
| intelligence planning process | The intelligence component of adaptive planning. It is a process that integrates, synchronizes, prioritizes, and focuses DoD Intelligence (both theater and national) on achieving the supported commander’s operational objectives and desired effects during all phases of an operation plan or concept plan. Additionally, the process identifies knowledge gaps and capability shortfalls within DoD Intelligence.                                                                                                           |
