past conflict personnel accounting. The sum of military, civil, and diplomatic efforts to locate, recover, and identify remains of unaccounted for DoD personnel in a theater of operation or as a result of a hostile act. This term and its definition are proposed for inclusion in the next edition of Joint Publication 1-02.

past conflict personnel accounting community. Consists of those elements of the DoD components with a mission to account for DoD personnel from past conflicts and other designated conflicts, e.g., DPAA, the casualty offices and mortuary offices of the Military Departments, the AFMES, and CCMD subordinate activities.

previously designated person. The person named by DoD personnel, pursuant to Section 655 of Title 10, U.S.C., to be notified and apprised of their status should they be reported in a missing status.

unaccounted for. An inclusive personnel accounting term applicable to DoD personnel within a combatant theater for which a campaign or service medal is authorized, or a military operation for which hostile fire or danger pay is authorized, or a member of a flight crew lost during a Cold War reconnaissance mission, including enroute to and from, whose casualty status is:

- “Missing” (all categories) and who has not returned alive to USG control; or
- “Deceased” and whose remains are not recovered or transferred to USG control; or Changed from “Missing” (all categories) to “Deceased,” subsequent to an administrative determination, pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations at the time, and whose remains were not recovered or transferred to USG control. This term and its definition are proposed for inclusion in the next edition of Joint Publication 1-02.

unaccounted for DoD personnel. Consist of U.S. military personnel, DoD civilian employees, DoD contractors, and other persons as directed by the Secretary of Defense from World War II, the Cold War, Korean War, Indochina War, and Persian Gulf War, and other conflicts designated by the Secretary of Defense. Those provided under the provisions of Section 1588(a)(9) of Title 10, U.S.C., which specifically authorizes the Secretary concerned to accept voluntary services from an individual to facilitate accounting for missing personnel, and are distinguished from the broader “gratuitous services” that are voluntary services from an individual that may be accepted by the government under the provisions of Section 1342 of Title 31, U.S.C. This term and its definition are proposed for inclusion in the next edition of Joint Publication 1-02.
