SECTION 3: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

This section reflects the DoD's interpretation and implementation of Section 1045.

Q: What is the bottom line effect of Section 1045?

A: There are two distinct post-government employment restrictions under Section 1045.

(1) Retired or former GO/FO, very senior civilian equivalents, and senior civilian equivalents are prohibited from lobbying contacts with covered executive branch officials in the DoD. For instance, the definition of a lobbying contact includes, but is not limited to, written and oral communications on behalf of the former official's client directed to covered executive branch officials in the DoD regarding federal legislation, rules, regulations, Executive orders, programs, or policies.

(2) Retired or former GO/FO, very senior civilian equivalents, and senior civilian equivalents are prohibited from lobbying contacts and other lobbying activities with covered executive branch officials outside of the DoD pertaining to a matter with respect to the DoD. The definition of lobbying activities includes efforts in support of lobbying contacts (e.g., research or other background work that is intended for use in a lobbying contact). Therefore, some behind the scenes assistance is prohibited.

Q: Who is affected by Section 1045?

A: Senior DoD officials who retired or separated after December 12, 2017 are affected by Section 1045; specifically:

(1) Military officers in grades O-7 and O-8 and senior civilian equivalents are subject to this prohibition for 1 year after their retirement or separation date in that grade.

(2) Military officers in grades O-9 and O-10 and very senior civilian equivalents are subject to this prohibition for 2 years after their retirement or separation date in that grade.

Q: What activity is restricted?

A: Specifically, lobbying contacts and lobbying activities are restricted. As a practical matter the threshold question is whether the communication is directed toward a covered executive branch official. If so, you must determine whether the communication is directed to a covered executive branch official in the DoD. If the answer is yes, then you are prohibited from making a lobbying contact with that official on behalf of your employer or client. If the answer is no, then you must determine whether the communication pertains to a matter with respect to the DoD.

If the communication is directed toward a covered executive branch official outside the DoD and does not pertain to a matter with respect to the DoD, then Section 1045 does not restrict your ability to participate in the communication on behalf of your employer or client. If the communication is directed toward a covered executive branch employee outside the DoD and pertains to a matter with respect to the DoD, then you are prohibited from participating in a lobbying contact in addition to any lobbying activities with that official on behalf of your employer or client.

For the purposes of these restrictions, a prohibited lobbying contact includes any oral or written communications to a covered executive branch official or a covered executive branch official in the DoD that is made on behalf of a client with regard to:

- (1) The formulation, modification, or adoption of federal legislation, including legislative proposals;
- (2) The formulation, modification, or adoption of a federal rule, regulation, Executive order, or any other program, policy, or position of the U.S. Government;
- (3) The administration or execution of a federal program or policy, including the negotiation, award, or administration of a federal contract, grant, loan, permit, or license; or
- (4) The nomination or confirmation of a person for a position subject to confirmation by the Senate.

Prohibited lobbying activities include lobbying contacts and efforts in support of such contacts, including preparation and planning activities, research and other background work that is intended, at the time it is performed, for use in contacts, and coordination with the lobbying activities of others.

Q: What is the difference between “lobbying contact” and “lobbying activities?”

A: The main difference is that “lobbying activities” means efforts in support of a lobbying contact, which includes some behind the scenes assistance. “Lobbying contact” does not prohibit any behind the scenes assistance.

Q: Are there any exceptions to the type of communications prohibited by Section 1045?

A: There are two sources of exceptions. First, all exceptions available pursuant to Section 207 of Title 18, U.S.C. apply in the same manner to communications covered by Section 1045. Second, Section 1045 uses the definition of lobbying contact in the LDA. Pursuant to the LDA, a lobbying contact does not include a communication that is:

- (1) Made by a public official acting in his or her official capacity.
- (2) Made by a representative of a media organization if the purpose of the communication is gathering and disseminating news and information to the public.
- (3) Made in a speech, article, publication, or other material that is distributed and made available to the public through radio, television, cable television, or other medium of mass communication.

(4) A request for a meeting, a request for the status of an action, or any other similar administrative request, if the request does not include an attempt to influence a covered executive branch official or a covered executive branch official in the DoD.

(5) Made in the course of participation in an advisory committee pursuant to Public Law 92-463.

(6) Testimony given before a congressional committee, subcommittee, or task force, or submitted for inclusion in the public record of a hearing conducted by such committee, subcommittee, or task force.

(7) Specific information provided in writing in response to an oral or written request by a covered executive branch official, or a covered executive branch official in the DoD.

(8) Required by subpoena, civil investigative demand, or otherwise compelled by statute, regulation, or other action of the Congress or an agency, including any communication compelled by a federal contract, grant, loan, permit, or license.

(9) Made in response to a notice in the Federal Register, Commerce Business Daily, or other similar publication soliciting communications from the public and directed to the agency official specifically designated in the notice to receive such communications.

(10) Made to an agency official with regard to:

(a) A judicial proceeding or a criminal or civil law enforcement inquiry, investigation, or proceeding; or

(b) A filing or proceeding that the government is specifically required by statute or regulation to maintain or conduct on a confidential basis, if that agency is charged with responsibility for such proceeding, inquiry, investigation, or filing.

(11) Made in connection with a formal administrative hearing, where the communication complies with written agency procedures regarding an adjudication.

(12) A written comment filed in the course of a public proceeding or any other communication that is made on the record in a public proceeding.

(13) A petition for agency action made in writing and required to be a matter of public record pursuant to applicable established agency procedures.

(14) Related to that individual's benefits, employment, or other personal matters (and not on behalf of another).

(15) A disclosure that is protected in accordance with the Section 2302(b)(8)-(9) of Title 5, U.S.C., Section 1034 of Title 10, U.S.C., Public Law 95-452, or in accordance with other whistleblower protection laws.

Q: How do the restrictions in Section 1045 affect working on existing DoD contracts or grants?

A: There is an exception to the definition of “lobbying contact” that allows communications that are “required by subpoena, civil investigative demand, or otherwise compelled by statute, regulation, or other action of the Congress or an agency, including any communication compelled by a Federal contract, grant, loan, permit, or license.” The House Ethics Committee’s guidance on the LDA provided the following illustration in an attempt to illustrate how this exception works:

Contractor “A” has a contract to provide technical assistance to Agency “B” on an ongoing basis. Technical communications between Contractor “A’s” employee, a former DoD official subject to Section 1045, and covered executive branch officials at Agency “B” would be required by the contract and therefore would not constitute “lobbying contacts.” Note that this exception would not encompass an attempt by Contractor “A” to influence covered officials regarding either matters of policy, or an award of a new contract, since such communications would not be required by the existing contract. (Section 1602 of Title 2, U.S.C. See generally https://lobbyingdisclosure.house.gov/amended_lda_guide.html). In addition, the former DoD official must also consider whether the representational restrictions in Section 207 of Title 18, U.S.C. would bar the communication.

Q: Would the restrictions in Section 1045 prohibit participation in submitting bids or other proposals in response to request for information or funding proposals?

A: No. The LDA excludes certain communications from the definition of lobbying contact. Specifically, communications made in response to a notice in the Federal Register, Commerce Business Daily, or other similar publication soliciting communications from the public and directed to the agency official specifically designated in the notice to receive such communications. This includes submitting bids or proposals in response to a request for information or funding proposals. Similarly excluded from the definition of lobbying contact is information provided in writing in response to an oral or written request by a covered executive branch official, or a covered executive branch official in the DoD. In addition, the former DoD official must also consider whether the representational restrictions in Section 207 of Title 18, U.S.C. would bar the communication.

Q: How does Section 1045 differ from the criminal law restrictions in Section 207(c) of Title 18, U.S.C.?

A: Section 207(c) of Title 18, U.S.C. bars communication with, or appearance before, any DoD official in the former employee’s former DoD agency without regard to that official’s appointment status. In contrast, Section 1045 only bars communications with certain covered executive branch officials.

Section 207(c) of Title 18, U.S.C. does not prohibit any behind the scenes activities. However, Section 1045 prohibits participating in lobbying activities with covered executive branch officials outside of DoD pertaining to a matter with respect to DoD. The definition of lobbying activities includes activities in support of lobbying contacts, which includes some behind the scenes assistance (e.g., research or other background work that is intended for use in a lobbying contact).

Q: What results from a violation?

A: Section 1045 does not include an enforcement penalty or process. Whether a violation may result in a personnel action or impact an acquisition matter would be within the discretion and judgment of an appropriate official.

Q: Does Section 1045 apply retroactively to retired or former senior or very senior officials who left government service before it was enacted?

A: No. Former personnel who departed government service before December 12, 2017 are not subject to the provision. For former active duty military, this means the retirement or separation date, not entry on terminal, transition, or other leave before leaving active service.

Q: Does Section 1045 apply to Reserve general officers who return to their civilian lobbying jobs after serving on active duty?

A: Section 1045 states that the lobbying prohibition begins only on retirement or separation from service. Therefore, Section 1045 will only apply to Reserve general officers upon their retirement or separation from service; however, similar to the 1 year cooling-off period under Section 207(c) of Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1045 will only apply to the Reserve general officer if he/she served 60 days or more on active duty in the 1 year period prior to his/her retirement or separation from service in the Armed Forces.

Q: Who are the covered executive branch officials who may not be lobbied?

A: Covered executive branch officials include:

- (1) The President and Vice President.
- (2) Any officer or employee in the Executive Office of the President.
- (3) Any officer or employee serving in a position in levels I-V of the Executive Schedule (Presidentially appointed, Senate-confirmed officials).
- (4) Any member of the uniformed services whose pay grade is at or above O-7 (GO/FO).
- (5) A non-career official in a confidential, policy-making position (non-career SES or Schedule C appointee).

Career [SES] appointees (as defined in 5 U.S.C. § 3132(a)(4)), including limited term [SES] appointees and limited emergency [SES] appointees (as defined in 5 U.S.C. §§ 3121(a)(5) and (6)), are not included in the definition of a “covered executive branch official.” Therefore, Section 1045 does not prohibit contacts with these particular SES appointees.
