The term "Military Services," as used herein, refers to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps.

3. DEFINITIONS

Terms used in this Instruction are defined in enclosure 2.

4. POLICY

4.1. This Instruction implements policy established in reference (b).

4.2. This Instruction is not intended to, and does not, create any entitlement, cause of action, or defense in favor of any person arising out of the failure to accord to a victim or a witness the assistance outlined in this Instruction. No limitations are hereby placed on the lawful prerogatives of the Department of Defense or its officials.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)) shall:

   5.1.1. Develop overall policy for victim and witness assistance and monitor compliance with this Instruction.

   5.1.2. Approve procedures developed by the Secretaries of the Military Departments that implement this Instruction and are consistent with section 6., below.

   5.1.3. Change, reissue, or amend this Instruction, as required.

   5.1.4. Ensure the Defense Manpower Data Center assists in formulating a data collection mechanism to track and report victim notifications from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, confinement, and release.
5.1.5. Establish an interdisciplinary Victim and Witness Assistance Council.

5.1.5.1. The Council shall provide a forum for the exchange of information, consider victim and witness assistance policies, and provide liaison with the Department of Justice Office for Victims of Crime.

5.1.5.2. The membership of the Council shall be selected from members of the Armed Forces and other DoD employees having expertise in the disciplines and professions addressed in subparagraph 5.2.6., below. The Council shall meet quarterly or at the call of the chair.

5.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Heads of the DoD Components shall:

5.2.1. Ensure compliance with this Instruction and establish policies and procedures to implement the victim and witness assistance program within their Component.

5.2.2. Designate the Component responsible official, as defined in enclosure 2, for the victim and witness assistance program, who shall report annually to the USD(P&R) using DD Form 2706, "Victim and Witness Assistance Annual Report" (enclosure 8).

5.2.3. Provide for the assignment of personnel in sufficient numbers to enable those programs identified in 10 U.S.C. 113 note (reference (g)) to be carried out effectively.

5.2.4. Designate a central repository for confinee information, as defined in item E2.1.1. of enclosure 2, for each Military Service, and establish procedures to ensure victims who so elect are notified of changes in inmate status.

5.2.5. Establish an interdisciplinary Victim and Witness Assistance Council in each Military Department to develop policy recommendations and facilitate coordination between the Department's victim and witness assistance program and its victim advocacy program.

5.2.6. Establish a Victim and Witness Assistance Council, when practicable, at each military installation, to ensure victim and witness service providers follow an interdisciplinary approach. These providers may include law enforcement personnel, criminal investigators, chaplains, family advocacy personnel, emergency room personnel, family service center personnel, equal opportunity personnel, judge advocates, unit commanding officers, corrections personnel, and other persons designated by the Secretaries of the Military Departments.
5.2.7. Establish a training program to ensure the providers listed in subparagraph 5.2.6., above, receive instruction to assist them in complying with this Instruction.

5.2.8. Ensure that local responsible officials are designated. The local responsible official (also referred to as Victim/Witness Coordinator or Victim/Witness Liaison) shall coordinate the effort to ensure that systems are in place at the installation level to provide information on available benefits and services, assistance in obtaining those benefits and services, and other services required in section 6., below. The local responsible official may delegate the duties as appropriate, but retains responsibility to coordinate the delivery of required services. To coordinate the delivery of services, the local responsible official may use an interdisciplinary approach involving the various service providers listed in subparagraph 5.2.6., above.

5.2.9. Establish oversight procedures to ensure establishment of an integrated support system capable of providing the services outlined in section 6., below. Such oversight could include coverage by Military Service or organizational Inspectors General, staff assistance visits, surveys, and status reports.

5.3. The Inspector General of the Department of Defense shall oversee the development of investigative policy and perform appropriate oversight reviews of the management of the victim and witness assistance program by the DoD criminal investigative organizations. This is not intended to substitute for the routine managerial oversight of the program provided by the DoD criminal investigative organizations, the USD(P&R), the Heads of the DoD Components, the Component responsible officials, or the local responsible officials.

6. PROCEDURES

6.1. Initial Information and Services to be Provided to Victims and Witnesses. At the earliest opportunity after identification of a crime victim or witness, the local responsible official, law enforcement officer, or criminal investigation officer shall provide the following services to each victim and witness, as appropriate: The DD Form 2701, "Initial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime," (enclosure 3) or computer-generated equivalent shall be used as a handout to convey basic information and points of contact and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service. This serves as evidence that the officer notified the victim or witness of his or her statutory rights. The following services shall also be provided by the local responsible official or designee:

6.1.1. Information about available military and civilian emergency medical and social services, victim advocacy services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, and, when necessary, assistance in securing such services.
6.1.2. Information about restitution or other relief a victim may be entitled to under references (d) and (e), or other applicable laws, and the manner in which such relief may be obtained.

6.1.3. Information to victims of intra-familial abuse offenses on the availability of limited transitional compensation benefits and possible entitlement to some of the active duty member's retirement benefits under 10 U.S.C. 1058, 1059, 1408 (reference (g)) and DoD Instruction 1342.24 (reference (h)).

6.1.4. Information about public and private programs that are available to provide counseling, treatment, and other support, including available compensation through Federal, State, and local agencies.

6.1.5. Information about the prohibition against intimidation and harassment of victims and witnesses, and arrangements for the victim or witness to receive reasonable protection from threat, harm, or intimidation from a suspected offender and from people acting in concert with or under the control of the suspected offender.

6.1.6. Information concerning military and civilian protective orders, as appropriate.

6.1.7. Information about the military criminal justice process, the role of the victim or witness in the process, and how the victim or witness can obtain additional information concerning the process and the case.

6.1.8. If necessary, assistance in contacting the people responsible for providing victim and witness services and relief.

6.2. Information to be Provided During Investigation of a Crime. If the victim or witness has not already received the DD Form 2701 from law enforcement officials, it shall be used by investigators as a handout to convey basic information and points of contact. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service. This serves as evidence that the officer notified the victim or witness of his or her statutory rights. Law enforcement investigators and criminal investigators shall inform all victims and witnesses, as appropriate, of:

6.2.1. The status of the investigation of the crime, to the extent providing such information does not interfere with the investigation.

6.2.2. The arrest of the suspected offender.

6.2.3. A decision not to pursue further investigation.
6.3. Information and Services to be Provided Concerning the Prosecution of a Crime

6.3.1. If applicable, the following shall be provided by Government trial counsel or designee to victims and witnesses:

6.3.1.1. Consultation concerning the decision not to prefer charges against the suspected offender.

6.3.1.2. Consultation concerning the disposition of the offense if other than a court-martial.

6.3.1.3. The decision to pursue court-martial charges against the suspected offender. The DD Form 2702, "Court-Martial Information for Victims and Witnesses," (enclosure 4) shall be used as a handout to convey basic information about the court-martial process. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service.

6.3.1.4. Notification of the initial appearance of the suspected offender before a judicial officer at a pretrial confinement hearing or at an Article 32, Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), investigation (10 U.S.C. 832, reference (c)).

6.3.1.5. Notification of the release of the suspected offender from pretrial confinement.

6.3.1.6. Consultation concerning the decision to refer or not to refer the charges against the suspected offender to trial by court-martial.

6.3.1.7. Explanation of the court-martial process upon referral to trial.

6.3.1.8. Prior to the actual court-martial, assistance in obtaining available services such as transportation, parking, child care, lodging, and courtroom translators or interpreters that may be necessary to allow the victim or witness to participate in court proceedings.

6.3.1.9. During the court proceedings, provide a private waiting area out of the sight and hearing of the accused and defense witnesses. In the case of proceedings conducted aboard ship or in a deployed environment, provide a private waiting area to the greatest extent practicable.

6.3.1.10. Notification of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of each investigation pursuant to Article 32, UCMJ (reference (c)), and each court proceeding the victim is entitled to or required to attend. Upon request of a victim or witness whose absence from work or inability to pay an account is caused by the crime or cooperation in the investigation or prosecution, the employer or creditor of the victim or witness shall be informed of the reasons for the absence from work or inability to make timely payments on an account. This requirement does not create an independent entitlement to legal assistance or a legal defense against claims of indebtedness.

6.3.1.11. Consultation concerning any decision to dismiss charges or to enter into a pretrial agreement.

6.3.1.12. Notification of the disposition of the case, to include the acceptance of a plea of "guilty," the rendering of a verdict, or the withdrawal or dismissal of charges.

6.3.1.13. Notification to victims of the opportunity to present to the court at sentencing, in compliance with applicable law and regulations, a statement of the impact of the crime on the victim, including financial, social, psychological, and physical harm suffered by the victim.

6.3.1.14. After court proceedings, take appropriate action to ensure that property of a victim or witness held as evidence is safeguarded and returned as expeditiously as possible.

6.3.1.15. Notification of the offender's sentence and general information regarding minimum release date, parole, clemency, and mandatory supervised release, if applicable.

6.3.2. Except for information that is releasable under paragraph 6.2. and subparagraph 6.3.1., requests for information relating to the investigation and prosecution of a crime (e.g., investigative reports and related documents) from a victim or witness shall be processed in accordance with DoD 5400.7-R (reference (f)). The local responsible official may authorize release of a copy of the record of trial without cost to a victim when necessary to lessen the physical, psychological, or financial hardships suffered as a result of a criminal act.

6.3.3. Any consultation or notification required by subparagraph 6.3.1. may be limited to avoid endangering the safety of a victim or witness, jeopardizing an ongoing investigation, disclosing classified or privileged information, or unduly delaying the disposition of an offense. Although the victim's views should be considered, this Instruction is not intended to limit the responsibility or authority of the Military Service or the Defense Agency officials to act in the interest of good order and discipline.

6.4. Information and Services to be Provided Upon Order to Confinement. The following services shall be provided by the Government trial counsel or designee to victims and witnesses upon sentencing of an offender to confinement in a court-martial: The DD Form 2703, "Post-Trial Information for Victims and Witnesses," (enclosure 5) shall be used as a handout to convey basic information about the post-trial process. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service. When appropriate, the following shall be provided to victims and witnesses:

6.4.1. General information regarding convening authority action, the corrections process, information about work release, furlough, probation, parole, mandatory supervised release, or other forms of release from custody, and eligibility for each.

6.4.2. Specific information regarding the election to be notified of changes in inmate status. The DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status," (enclosure 6) shall be used for victims and appropriate witnesses (those who fear harm by the offender) to elect to be notified of changes in the offender's status in confinement. For all cases resulting in a sentence to confinement, the DD Form 2704 shall be completed and forwarded to the Service central repository, the gaining confinement facility, the local responsible official, and the victim or witness, if any. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service. Do not allow the inmate access to DD Forms 2704 or 2705 or attach a copy of the forms to any record to which the confinee has access. Doing so could endanger the victim or witness. The DD Forms 2704 and 2705 are exempt from release under reference (f).

6.5. Information and Services to be Provided Upon Entry into Confinement Facilities. The victim and witness assistance coordinator at the military confinement facility shall:

6.5.1. On entry of an offender into post-trial confinement, obtain the DD Form 2704 to determine victim or witness notification requirements. If the form is unavailable, ask the Service central repository whether any victim or witness has requested notification of changes in inmate status in the case.

6.5.2. When a victim or witness has requested notification of changes in inmate status on the DD Form 2704, and that status changes as listed in subparagraphs 6.5.2.1. through 6.5.2.6., below, use the DD Form 2705, "Victim and Witness Notification of Changes in Inmate Status," (enclosure 7) to notify the victim or witness. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable and shall be recorded on the appropriate form authorized for use by the particular Service to comply with the reporting requirement in subparagraph 6.6.1.5. Provide the earliest possible notice of:

6.5.2.1. The scheduling of a clemency or parole hearing for the inmate.

6.5.2.2. The transfer of the inmate from one facility to another.

6.5.2.3. The escape (and subsequent return to custody), work release, furlough, or any other form of release from custody of the inmate.
6.5.2.4. The release of the inmate to parole supervision.

6.5.2.5. The death of the inmate, if the inmate dies while in custody.

6.5.2.6. A change in the scheduled release date of more than 30 days from the last notification due to a disposition or disciplinary and adjustment board.

6.5.3. Make reasonable efforts to notify all victims and witnesses who have requested notification of changes in inmate status of any emergency or special temporary home release granted an inmate.

6.5.4. On transfer of an inmate to another military confinement facility, forward the DD Form 2704 to the gaining facility, with an information copy to the Service central repository.

6.5.5. Annually report the status of victim and witness notification requests to the Service central repository as required by section 7., below.

6.6. Reporting Procedures

6.6.1. To comply with the requirements of references (d), (e), and (g), the Component responsible official shall submit an annual report using the DD Form 2706 (enclosure 8) to the following address: The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, Attention: Legal Policy Office, 4000 Defense Pentagon, Washington, DC 20301-4000. 6.6.1.4. The number of victims and witnesses who elected via the DD Form 2704 to be notified of changes in inmate status.

6.6.1.5. The number of victims and witnesses who were notified of changes in inmate status by the confinement Victim Witness Assistance Coordinators via the DD Form 2705 or a computer-generated equivalent.
6.6.1.6. The cumulative number of inmates in each Service for whom victim witness notifications must be made by each Service's confinement facilities. These numbers are derived by totaling the number of inmates with victim or witness notification requirements at the beginning of the year, adding new inmates with the requirement, and then subtracting those confinees who were released, deceased, or transferred to another facility (Federal, State, or sister Service) during the year.

6.6.2. The Office of the USD(P&R) shall consolidate all reports submitted pursuant to paragraph 6.6., above, and submit an annual report to the Office for Victims of Crime, Department of Justice.

Initial Information
For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction. We are concerned about the problems often experienced by victims and witnesses of crime. We know that as a victim or witness, you may experience anger, frustration, or fear as a result of your experience. The officer responsible for Victim/Witness Assistance at your installation can help.

We have prepared this brochure to help you deal with the problems and questions which often surface during an investigation and to provide you with a better understanding of how the military criminal justice system works. Your continued assistance is really needed and appreciated.

A criminal investigation can be both complex and lengthy and may involve several agencies, some Federal and some local. If you request, you will be kept informed of the status of your case by the investigator handling your case. His or her name is on the back of this brochure.

If You Are Threatened Or Harassed. If anyone threatens you or you feel that you are being harassed because of your cooperation with this investigation, contact the investigator or the Victim/Witness Responsible Official right away. It is a crime to threaten or harass a victim or witness.

If You Were Insured. If you do not have insurance to pay the cost of your medical or counseling bills, or related expenses, the state Crime Victim Compensation office may be able to assist. The telephone number for this office is on the back of this brochure.

If You Were a Victim of Spousal or Child Abuse or Sexual Assault. For your safety, you may want a restraining order, or temporary shelter. For information about these steps or about counseling services, call the Victim/ Witness Responsible Official. If the offender is convicted or discharged for abusing you or your children, you may be eligible for "transitional compensation" benefits. Contact the prosecutor identified on the back of this brochure for further information.

Restitution. If an individual is arrested and prosecuted in federal court, you may be eligible for restitution.
Restitution is court-ordered payment to you as a victim of crime. It is made by the offender for any out of pocket expenses caused by the crime.
Restitution cannot be ordered as a sentence in a military court-martial, but it can be used as a condition of a pretrial agreement to plead guilty to an offense, or as a condition of community service.

If Property Was Stolen. If your property was stolen, we hope to recover it as part of our investigation. If we do, we will notify you and return it to you as quickly as possible. Sometimes property needs to be held as evidence for trial. We will return your property once it is no longer needed as evidence.

If You Need Assistance With Your Employer or Comment. If you have problems at work because of the crime or the investigation, we can contact your employer or Commanding Officer to discuss the importance of your role in the investigation.

If An Arrest Is Made. If you ask, you will be notified if a suspect is arrested. Since criminal defendants may be released before trial, you can ask for a restraining order to help protect you from the suspect.

Trial. Once an offense has been referred to trial, you will be contacted by the military trial counsel (prosecutor) or the Assistant U.S.
Attorney assigned to handle your case, as appropriate. Each command and U.S.
Attorney has a Victim/Witness Responsible Official to help answer your questions and deal with your concerns during the prosecution.
You have the right to be consulted at key stages in the trial and will be informed of these rights by trial counsel.

Confidential. If the accused is sentenced to confined time (prison), you have a right to notification of changes in the confined's status.
Use a DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status," to request that the confinement facility notify you of parole hearings, release, remand, or death of the confined.

The Emotional Impact of Crime. Many victims and witnesses are emotionally affected by the crime. Although everyone reacts differently, victims and witnesses report some common behaviors, such as

Court-Martial Information
For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction
The Department of Defense is concerned about the problems often experienced by victims and witnesses of crime. We know that as a victim or witness, you may feel anger, confusion, frustration, or fear as a result of your experience and then feel added frustration in the course of the trial. The information in this brochure will explain the criminal justice procedures, and your role as a witness.

In the military, a prosecutor is called the Trial Counsel. The Trial Counsel’s office will make every effort to keep you informed of the times and places you may be needed. However, it is not unusual for court dates to change several times before the trial. It is very important to keep the Trial Counsel informed of your current address and telephone number.

Pretrial Conference
You will be asked to speak with the Trial Counsel handling the case at least once before you testify. The Trial Counsel will answer any questions you may have at this time, and will tell you what will be expected of you as a witness.

Article 32 Hearing
Serious crimes are dealt with in a "General" court-martial which includes an "Article 32" hearing. Similar to a grand jury hearing, an Article 32 hearing is the preliminary investigation into the charges to determine if reasonable grounds exist to believe the accused committed the crimes charged. In the Article 32 hearing, testimony is given to an Investigating Officer (IO), rather than a judge or jury. You may have to appear at the hearing and testify under oath regarding what you know about the charges. After the Article 32 hearing, the IO recommends whether to "refer" the case to a Special Court-Martial. In less serious cases, the preliminary hearing is not required and cases are referred to a Special Court-Martial.

Court-Martial
This is the trial of the accused. It generally has two parts: findings (guilty or not guilty) and sentencing (punishment). In the findings phase the military judge sitting alone or a panel of "members" (jury) will decide whether the accused is guilty of any offenses.

Testimony
If you testify, you will be placed under oath and asked questions by the Trial Counsel. You may also be cross-examined by the Defense Counsel. Usually, counsel for both sides will have spoken to you prior to testifying so there will be very few surprises. If you have concerns about embarrassing questions that could be asked, tell the Trial Counsel before trial.

Pointers When Testifying
- Dress Appropriately: Be neat. Dress conservatively.
- Tell the Truth: Honesty is the best policy.
- Speak Clearly and Loudly: Everyone in the courtroom must be able to hear what you have to say. No gum chewing.
- Don’t Guess or Speculate: If you don’t know, say you don’t know. Give positive, definite answers when you remember positively.
- Be Courteous: Answer politely and address the judge as "Your Honor".
- Don’t Lose Your Temper: Stay calm.

Closing Argument
After all evidence is received by the court, each side makes a closing argument. After argument, the judge or members will adjourn to deliberate on the issue of guilt or innocence. If there is a finding of "not guilty," the accused is released and the court-martial process ends. If there is a finding of "guilty," the trial immediately goes to the sentencing phase.

Post-Trial Information
For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction
This brochure details the post-trial process and your rights in that process. Most important is your right to be notified of changes in the confinement status of the offender in your case.

Location of Confinement Facility
The Victim and Witness Assistance Program does not work in cooperation with the court martial. If the accused is convicted of any offense, the court-martial will sentence the accused. If the sentence includes confinement, the accused, now called "inmate", is usually taken immediately to jail. If there is a confinement facility at the installation where the trial was held, the inmate will be held there temporarily.

Depending on the security level of the inmate, restrat may be assigned to various work details around the installation. If the inmate's period of confinement is minimal, and there are adequate facilities on the installation, the inmate may serve the entire sentence at the installation. If there is no confinement facility at the installation, the facility is not adequate to house the inmate, or the sentence is in excess of what is handled at the installation, he/she will be taken to a regional confinement facility. The inmate may later be transferred to other facilities available.

based on length of sentence, programs and security levels. You will be notified of these changes if you fill out a form called DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status." It is very important that you keep the confinement facility informed of your current address and telephone number.

Convening Authority Action
The other parts of the sentence (e.g., forfeitures of pay, reduction in rank) will not be effective until the "convening authority," usually a senior officer, takes "action" on it, generally within 6 to 9 months. The convening authority may disapprove the findings, disapprove any part of the sentence, or approve everything except a punitive discharge. The convening authority cannot increase any part of the sentence.

You have the right to submit a statement to the convening authority on how you feel about the inmate receiving clemency. You can ask the Trial Counsel about this right.

Clemency and Parole Consideration
Military Inmates are eligible for parole consideration when they have completed 1/3 of their confinement, and every year thereafter. You may make a statement to the Clemency and Parole Board on how the crime affected you. The statement may be on audio or video tape or in writing and may be sent to the Service Clemency and Parole Board at the address on the back of this page.

A personal appearance before the Board may also be permitted.

Notification Rights
You have the right to be notified in writing of the following changes in the inmate's status, transfer to another facility, parole, escape, release from confinement, or death while in confinement. If the inmate is released on temporary absence leave (for example, to visit a dying parent), the confinement facility will make every effort to notify you in advance.

How To Exercise Your Rights
If you want to exercise these rights, and be notified of the dates of any clemency and parole hearings, and changes in the inmate's status, you must fill out DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status." You must notify the Service Central Repository of all address and telephone number changes if you want to receive notices. Your information will be kept confidential.

Points of Contact
From now on, your point of contact will be on confinement facility or the Service Central Repository listed on the back of this page. Please call if you have any questions.
