SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY. This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard at all times, including when it is a Service in the Department of Homeland Security by agreement with that Department), the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

1.2. POLICY. DoD:

a. In accordance with Section 582 of Public Law 110-181, as amended, provides eligible individuals access to programs, resources, referrals, and services through YRRP to minimize stress for Service members and their families during all phases of deployment or accumulated deployment of 90 days or more. YRRP will have information and events for eligible individuals and community members regarding services supporting their health, well-being, and readiness through all phases of the deployment cycle:

(1) Before activation, mobilization, or deployment: This phase will be the time when RC units or members are preparing for activation, mobilization, or deployment, including alert until activation, mobilization, or deployment.

(2) During activation, mobilization, or deployment: This phase will be while the RC member is activated, mobilized, or deployed as well as during any redeployment period.

(3) After activation, mobilization, or deployment: This phase will be the time following deactivation, demobilization or deployment, or during any redeployment period, but no earlier than 30 days after demobilization. Military Services may provide additional services earlier than 30 days at their discretion.

b. Implements YRRP through collaboration with a network of agencies, programs, services, and individuals to promote deployment readiness. This will:

(1) Allocate resources to accomplish the YRRP mission.

(2) Designate, fund, and manage YRRP to:

(a) Use and relocate services, staff, and resources as needed to respond effectively to the changing needs of RC members and their families during times of peace, war, crisis, natural disaster, and other emergency situations.

(b) Maximize diverse forms of service delivery including, but not limited to, in-person methods, internet-based solutions, media outreach, and colocation of services in an easily accessible environment.

1.3. INFORMATION COLLECTION.

a. The YRRP Post-Event Questionnaire, referred to in Paragraph 3.7.b of this issuance, has been assigned report control symbol DD-RA (AR) 2397 in accordance with the procedures in Volume 1 of DoD Manual 8910.01. The expiration date of this information collection is listed in the DoD Information Collections System at <https://apps.sp.pentagon.mil/sites/dodiic/Pages/default.aspx>.

b. The YRRP Retrospective Survey, referred to in Paragraph 3.7.c of this issuance, has been assigned report control symbol DD-RA (Q) 2545 in accordance with the procedures in Volume 1 of DoD Manual 8910.01. The expiration date of this information collection is listed in the DoD Information Collections System at <https://apps.sp.pentagon.mil/sites/dodiic/Pages/default.aspx>.

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1. UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR PERSONNEL AND READINESS (USD(P&R)). The USD(P&R):

f. Engages the RCs to build, integrate, and help sustain local community resources and the capacity to respond to deployments.

2.5. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR FORCE EDUCATION AND TRAINING. Under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(P&R), the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Force Education and Training:

a. Serves as the DoD focal point for financial education and counseling, and issues common training standards for financial literacy training across the military lifecycle, including pre- and post-deployment.

b. Delivers factual, accurate, and unbiased financial literacy and preparedness resources for utilization in YRRP.

c. Provides short-term, non-government financial education and counseling to assist Service members and their families to achieve their financial goals and successfully overcome financial challenges.

d. Oversees the DoD Voluntary Education Partnership Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) submitted to DoD, pursuant to DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1322.25, through which authorized providers may participate in the Voluntary Education Program, to include DoD installation access and participation in the Tuition Assistance Program.

2.6. DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE HUMAN RESOURCES ACTIVITY (DODHRA). Under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(P&R), the Director, DoDHRA:

- a. Coordinates with the ASD(M&RA) on the operational responsibilities of the Director, DPFSC.
- b. Supports YRRP, including human capital and resources, funding and budget, and logistics.

2.7. DIRECTOR, DPFSC.

a. Policy Support Responsibilities. In support of the development of policy by the USD(P&R) and the ASD(M&RA), and in coordination with the DASD(RI):

- (1) Coordinates YRRP policies, programs, and delivery with the USD(P&R) and the ASD(M&RA).
- (2) Recommends policy, strategic guidance, and program goals for YRRP and reviews, modifies, and reissues guidance and program goals, as appropriate.
- (3) Considers the recommendations of the YRRP Advisory Board. The Director will seek concurrence of the YRRP Advisory Board prior to making any significant changes to YRRP.

b. Operational Responsibilities. Under the authority, direction, and control of the Director, DoDHRA, the Director, DPFSC:

- (1) Ensures all DoD RCs provide activation, mobilization, or deployment programs by requiring annual reporting on YRRP activities and events
- (2) Develops and maintains a national calendar of activation, mobilization, or deployment support events and activities.
- (3) Provides a forum for the exchange of information, to include best practices and training, when requested by a RC. In addition, trains personnel who provide services and support to the RC eligible individuals as well as external and internal stakeholders.
- (4) Coordinates, consults, and partners with the following in order to maximize the opportunities for activation, mobilization, or deployment services at the local and community level when possible:
 - (a) Psychological Health Center of Excellence.
 - (b) Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).
 - (c) Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs).
 - (d) Department of Labor.
 - (e) Small Business Administration.

- (f) Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program in the DoDHRA.

2.9. COMMANDANT OF THE U.S. COAST GUARD. The Commandant of the U.S. Coast Guard ensures compliance with the requirements in this issuance for all eligible individuals with regard to Coast Guard RC activations.

2.10. CHIEF, NATIONAL GUARD BUREAU (NGB). The Chief, NGB, maintains an NGB instruction and manual for a joint YRRP program applicable to members of both the Army and Air National Guard.

SECTION 3: PROCEDURES

3.1. DOD YRRP

a. Events and Activities. Commanders will work with their units and other event support personnel to determine which services are desired and how to deliver necessary resources through events and activities. Events and activities will:

- (1) Inform eligible individuals about the resources available to them throughout their activation, mobilization, or deployment.
- (2) Prepare eligible individuals, employers, and affected communities for the difficulties of activation, mobilization, or deployment.
- (3) Occur throughout all phases of activation, mobilization, or deployment.

b. Organizations. Local, State, and Federal Government and non-governmental organizations may provide information relating to resources and services available when requested and authorized by a Military Service.

(1) Educational institutions with a signed Voluntary Education Partnership MOU may participate in YRRP events in accordance with DoDI 1322.25 and their signed MOU. The content and information presented on similar subjects by these organizations may vary depending on the stage of the activation, mobilization, or deployment.

(2) Financial education, counseling, and related materials may only be provided by the government, non-profit organizations, or on-base financial institutions operating under a lease with the government, in accordance with DoDI 1344.07 governing personal commercial solicitation on DoD installations. Educational institutions must have a signed DoD Voluntary Education Partnership MOU and only contracted educational institutions are permitted on overseas DoD installations, in accordance with DoDI 1322.25.

c. Military Departments. RCs will maximize use of inter-Service program materials featuring YRRP CfE promising practices. YRRP CfE will collect and analyze lessons learned and suggestions from the State National Guard programs and RCs with existing or developing reintegration programs. From this analysis, YRRP CfE will maintain a selection of best practices in order to develop training aids and briefing materials. Program materials are available on the YRRP website at <http://www.yellowribbon.mil>.

(1) Hosting Units. The Military Services will host, coordinate, resource, and execute events or activities as required. Eligible individuals will receive consistent and quality core program support regardless of Service or unit affiliation at any YRRP event or activity.

(2) Volunteer Support. Voluntary service in support of YRRP events and activities is authorized in accordance with DoDI 1100.21.

(3) Eligible Individuals. YRRP will support RC members, to include members of the Individual Ready Reserve, individual augmentees, and their families or designated representatives.

(4) Participation. Eligible individuals must coordinate registration and participation at YRRP events or activities through the RC member's chain of command, to include securing travel funds to facilitate participation if necessary and authorized. Participation is intended to provide information about resources available to enhance resiliency and manage the rigors of the military lifestyle and stressors caused by an activation, mobilization, or deployment.

(5) Family Member Participation. RC member's family participation in support programs is strongly encouraged in all phases of an activation, mobilization, or deployment in order to ensure awareness of support programs, benefits, and entitlements, and available resources. ITAs will be issued in compliance with Volume 1 of the Joint Federal Travel Regulation.

3.2. EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES BEFORE ACTIVATION, MOBILIZATION, OR DEPLOYMENT. Events and activities will provide education and information that focus on preparing eligible individuals and the affected communities for the rigors of each phase and the challenges of family separation. The events and activities will proactively show eligible individuals the available support programs and how each phase of deployment is connected. The topics in these events will focus on but are not limited to:

a. Medical, Dental, and Mental Health Benefits. This topic provides information on medical, dental, and mental health benefits within the military community. These services are normally different than those provided by private insurance and the differences, including provider care issues, need to be highlighted. Ensure local or regional points of contact are available to coordinate transition if a change of provider is required.

(1) TRICARE and TRICARE Dental Program. These programs provide TRICARE briefings for those who will be utilizing the system for the first time, as well as any updates or changes for those already enrolled.

(2) Resiliency. This service will provide information about programs, designed for eligible individuals, that serve to reduce stress and create resiliency. Some of these may include Service-specific programs addressing suicide prevention, sexual assault prevention, and substance abuse prevention.

b. Administrative Information. This topic will provide information and resources on services to include but not limited to Military Service information, Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System, and Civilian Employment Information.

c. Financial, Employment, Legal, and Miscellaneous Information. This topic will provide comprehensive information regarding:

(1) Financial Counseling and Readiness. Education and counseling to eligible individuals to aid them in managing their finances during deployment. Financial education, counseling, and related materials may only be provided by government, non-profit organizations, or on-base financial institutions operating under a lease with the government, in accordance with DoDI 1344.07. This must include:

- (a) Potential financial impacts associated with activation, mobilization, or deployment.
- (b) Spending plans, use of credit, savings, and the Thrift Savings Plan.
- (c) Special pay; entitlements; insurance needs; how activation, mobilization, or deployment may impact a Service member's tax situation; reviewing and updating estate planning documents; and updating dependent enrollment information.
- (d) Misleading consumer practices and identity theft.

(2) The Department of Veterans Affairs Disability Compensation. Information regarding dual compensation and the statutory prohibition on receiving disability compensation and military pay at the same time.

(3) Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR). Information on Chapter 43 of Title 38, United States Code (U.S.C.) (also known as the "Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994"), as well as points of contact for assistance regarding employment or employer issues.

(4) Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. In accordance with Chapter 50 of Title 50, U.S.C., and DoDI 1100.21, information on protections involving adverse civil actions and other military-related legal benefits. Adverse civil actions may include mortgage foreclosures.

(5) Legal Information and Services. Information on legal matters that may be needed during activation, mobilization, or deployment. This may include, but is not limited to:

- (a) Power of attorney.
- (b) Wills, trusts, and estate planning.
- (c) Family care plans.
- (d) Housing and rental issues.
- (e) Child custody issues.
- (f) Help with preparation of legal documents.

(6) Community and Outreach. Information on State, regional, and local outreach and community programs that provide key resources and information, especially while the RC member is activated, mobilized, or deployed. If possible, include information on programs and resources to assist single RC members. RCs should work with:

- (a) The American Red Cross.

- (b) Youth programs.
- (c) Military OneSource (or Service equivalent program).
- (d) Special or spiritual programs, to include chaplain and local faith-based organizations.
- (e) Marriage and relationship enrichment and effective communication programs that include all eligible individuals.
- (f) Family readiness-building programs.

3.3. EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES DURING ACTIVATION, MOBILIZATION, OR DEPLOYMENT. Deployment events or activities and services will focus on providing a forum for addressing negative behaviors related to operational stress and reintegration while the RC member is deployed.

a. Deployment events should address decreasing isolation of the family or designated individuals during activation, mobilization, or deployment.

b. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Special or spiritual programs.
- (2) Medical, dental, and mental health benefits.
- (3) Resiliency.
- (4) Veterans' affairs.
- (5) ESGR.
- (6) VSOs.
- (7) Community and financial information.

3.4. EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES AFTER ACTIVATION, MOBILIZATION, OR DEPLOYMENT.

a. RC organizations will hold a minimum of two reintegration events or activities within 365 days following an activation, mobilization, or deployment. The first event must take place no earlier than 30 days following completion of the activation, mobilization, or deployment.

b. RC organizations will determine intervals based on the needs of the unit or member. Events and activities will focus on reconnecting eligible individuals and communities.

c. Eligible individuals should be provided information and education on how to access the benefits, employment opportunities, and resources available to help them overcome the challenges of transition and reintegration. Topics at this event will include, but are not limited to:

(1) Medical, Dental, and Mental Health Benefits. Information on services pertaining to post-deployment medical, dental, and mental health benefits to eligible individuals, including the opportunity to enroll into TRICARE Reserve Select and the transition program.

(2) Resiliency. Information about programs designed for eligible individuals that serve to reduce stress and create resiliency. Some of these may include DoD and Service-specific programs addressing suicide prevention, sexual assault prevention, and substance abuse prevention. The Psychological Health Center of Excellence has created the Total Force Fitness framework, which works in concert with each Service and can be utilized by any hosting unit.

(3) Financial and Employment Information. Comprehensive information regarding:

(a) VA disability compensation, specifically dual compensation and the statutory prohibition concerning receiving disability compensation and military pay at the same time, including Reserve drill pay and active duty for training pay.

(b) ESGR that focuses on RC members reentering the work force. Emphasis is on their reemployment rights and information about the ESGR Ombudsman Program, to include points of contact, which provides resources to assist with reemployment issues.

(c) Services available through the Department of Labor.

(d) Financial education and counseling, with emphasis on evaluating spending plans based on changes to income.

(e) Upcoming job fairs if one is not conducted in conjunction with an event or activity.

(4) Transition Assistance Advisor (TAA) Program. The TAA Program, services, and points of contact can help RC members access their VA benefits and healthcare services. TAAs can also assist with obtaining entitlements through the TRICARE Military Health System and access to community resources.

(5) Safety Information. Information that will reacquaint RC members with local laws and changes that need to be made in driving habits.

(6) Community and Outreach. Information on State, regional, and local outreach and community programs may provide key resources and information to assist RC members and their families or designated individuals with reintegration issues. RC participation is encouraged with:

(a) VA, to include local VSOs, and Vet Centers.

- (b) Military OneSource (or Service equivalent program).
- (c) Special or spiritual programs to include available chaplains and local faith based organizations with emphasis on marriage enrichment and effective communication programs.
- (d) Programs and resources to assist single Service members.
- (e) Family readiness-building programs.

3.5. FUNDING.

a. Each individual RC will provide funding for pay, allowances, and if required, travel for eligible individuals, including ITAs, in accordance with the Joint Federal Travel Regulations and Service-specific policy or regulations. ITAs will comply with Volume 1 of the Joint Federal Travel Regulations.

b. RCs may limit the participation of eligible individuals as necessary due to any logistical or financial issues encountered. Logistical and other constraints limiting attendance should be identified by the host unit when coordinating attendance with non-organic unit RC members.

3.6. YRRP ADVISORY BOARD. Pursuant to Section 582 of Public Law 110-181, as amended, the YRRP Advisory Board will analyze YRRP and provide recommendations on areas of success and areas for necessary improvements. Members of the YRRP Advisory Board include:

- a. The Director of the Army National Guard.
- b. The Director of the Air National Guard.
- c. The Chiefs of the Army Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Navy Reserve, and Air Force Reserve.
- d. The ASD(M&RA).
- e. An Adjutant General on a rotational basis as determined by the Chief, NGB.
- f. Any other DoD Federal Government agency or outside organization as determined by the Secretary of Defense.

3.7. REPORTING AND SURVEYS.

a. In accordance with Paragraph 1.3 of this issuance, RCs will complete the ORP one-page YRRP post-event questionnaire at the conclusion of each YRRP event and scan and upload the completed surveys into YRRP's event planning system, EventPLUS, for analysis. RCs may supplement this survey as necessary.

b. In accordance with Paragraph 1.3 of this issuance, the RCs will invite their eligible individuals to complete the ORP YRRP retrospective survey, housed within EventPLUS, a minimum of twice per year. RCs will send out e-mail invitations to eligible individuals who have attended a YRRP event and those who registered but did not attend a YRRP event.

G.2. DEFINITIONS. These terms and their definitions are for the purpose of this issuance.

after action report. A formal report generated to analyze performance and provide feedback on lessons learned, recommendations, and process refinement.

American Red Cross. A humanitarian organization that provides services and information to assist the needy; facilitates communication among Service members and their families; collects, processes, and distributes blood and blood products; provides educational programs on health and safety; and gives international relief. The organization is governed by volunteers and supported by community donations from blood products.

civilian employment information. DoD requirement for yearly reporting of RC members' civilian employment information.

CfE. A center established within the ORP to collect and analyze lessons learned and suggestions from the National Guard and RC organizations with existing or developing reintegration programs. The center also assists with developing training aids and briefing materials and training representatives from the State National Guard and RC organizations.

community and outreach. Provides information or resources to organizations that connect groups, organizations, or people who might not otherwise have access to services.

Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System. The definitive centralized person data repository of identity and enrollment and eligibility verification data and associated contact information on members of the DoD Components, members of the Military Services, and other personnel as designated by the DoD, and their eligible dependents and associated contact information, in accordance with Volume 2 of DoD Manual 1000.13.

demobilization. The phase of the deployment cycle beginning with the arrival of the National Guard or Reserve unit at the demobilization station and ending with its departure for its home station.

deployment. The relocation of forces and materiel to desired operational areas. Deployment encompasses all activities from origin or home station through destination, specifically including intra-continental United States, intratheater, and intratheater movement legs, staging, and holding areas.

DoD installation. Any federally-owned, leased, or operated base, reservation, post, site, camp, building, or other facility where Service members are present.

dual compensation. An overpayment to Service members when they collect VA disability compensation benefits during the same period of time they receive military pay, including Reserve drill pay or active duty for training pay.

eligible individual. A member of a RC, a member of their family, or a designated representative who the Secretary of Defense determines to be eligible for YRRP.

ESGR. A DoD organization that seeks to develop and promote a culture in which all American employers support and value the Military Service of their employees by recognizing outstanding support, increasing awareness of Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act law, and resolving conflict through mediation. ESGR mediation services are available and may be requested via the ESGR website at <https://www.esgr.mil> or by calling 1-800-336-4950.

event. Unit or command-hosted YRRP training period that is funded to gather Service members, families, or designated representatives for deployment cycle related training. All events focus on preparation for the successful reintegration of the RC member, family member, or designated representative as applicable. A Yellow Ribbon training event must be conducted as defined in this issuance, or in accordance with Service-specific guidance.

family member. May include spouse, children, parents, grandparents, or sibling as recognized by Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System. The definition as used in this issuance applies to YRRP events.

ITA. Compensation for travel, per diem, housing, meals and incidentals. Each Military Service may limit the number of family members according to fiscal or logistic constraints in order to meet the intent of this instruction.

LNO. The conduit for information requirements from their respective Military Service.

Military and Family Life Counseling. This DoD program augments Service resources by providing confidential, non-medical counseling and presentations to Service members and their families at no cost to them. Licensed, military and family life counselors and child and youth behavioral counselors offer their services face-to-face both on and off military installations.

Military Service. For the purposes of YRRP, the Military Services are the Army National Guard, the United States Army, the United States Navy, the United States Marine Corps, the United States Air Force, the Air National Guard, the United States Coast Guard, and their respective RCs.

Military OneSource. A DoD-funded program that is both a 24/7/365 call center (800-342-9647) and a website (MilitaryOneSource.mil) providing comprehensive information, resources and assistance on every aspect of military life. Service members and the immediate family of active duty, National Guard and reserve (regardless of activation status), Coast Guard when activated for the Navy, DoD expeditionary civilians, and survivors are eligible for Military OneSource services. Veterans and their immediate family are eligible for Military OneSource up to 365 days post separation or retirement. All services are confidential and available at no cost to eligible individuals.

non-profit organization. Organizations that exist primarily to provide programs and services that are of benefit to others and may not be otherwise provided by local, State, or federal entities.

ORP. The ORP administers all reintegration programs in coordination with RCs, NGB, and State National Guard organizations. ORP coordinates with existing National Guard and RC family and support programs and oversees a joint force web-based decision support tool on national reintegration activities, programs, and resources.

pre-deployment. The period of time from first notification of mobilization, or deployment until deployment of the alerted National Guard or RC members or units.

program. A briefing, informational display, or booth hosted by agencies that provide deployment or reintegration information focused on a particular topic within a YRRP-funded event. It should be tailored and focused for RC members or their families in relationship to their phase in the deployment cycle.

Psychological Health Center of Excellence. The nexus of psychological health expertise in the Defense Health Agency and resides within the Research and Development Directorate.

A trusted source and partner in implementing evidence-based research and practices across the continuum of care to enhance psychological health and readiness in the military community.

reintegration. The process of enhancing the resiliency and sustainability of both family and Service members for prolonged wartime deployments. This process includes an understanding of the military, military life, and the support mechanisms which are available to deal with the separations and anxieties associated with deployments and military life.

This reintegration process begins during pre-deployment and extends through the post-deployment period until RC members and their families are returned to their functional state in society. The culmination of this process is the successful return of RC members to their families and society.

RC. In accordance with Section 10101 of Title 10, U.S.C., the RCs are:

The Army Reserve.

The Navy Reserve.

The Marine Corps Reserve.

The Army National Guard of the United States.

The Air National Guard of the United States.

The Air Force Reserve.

The Coast Guard Reserve.

suicide prevention. Provide National Guard and RC members, their families, and their communities with training in suicide prevention. The suicide prevention training will describe warning signs and education on effective strategies for prevention and intervention; examining the influences of the military culture on risk and protective factors; and interactive case scenarios and role plays to practice effective intervention strategies.

TAA. An individual in each State or U.S. territory, provided by the TAA Program, to serve as the point of contact to assist RC members (primarily National Guard) and their families in accessing VA benefits and healthcare services. Each TAA also provides assistance in obtaining entitlements through the TRICARE Military Health System and access to community resources. The TAA initiative began in May 2005 when the NGB signed a memorandum of agreement with the VA. The TAA Program is staffed by 55 contract positions and two federal technicians.

Vet Centers. The VA Vet Centers program operates as a system of 232 community based counseling centers, providing free benefits to the veteran or family member. The Vet Centers are staffed by small multi-disciplinary teams of dedicated providers, many of whom are combat veterans themselves. Vet Center staff members are available during normal business hours at 1-800-905-4675 (Eastern Standard Time) and 1-866-496-8838 (Pacific Standard Time). Readjustment counseling and outreach services are provided to all veterans who served in any combat zone. Services are also available for their family members for military related issues. Additional information is available at <http://www.vetcenter.va.gov>.

VSO. Private, non-profit groups that advocate on behalf of veterans. Additional information is available at <http://www.va.gov/vso/index.cfm>.
