1.2. POLICY. It is DoD policy that:

a. Accurate and timely information is made available to the public and the Congress to help with analysis and understanding of defense strategy, defense policy, and national security issues.

b. Any official DoD information intended for public release that pertains to military matters, national security issues, or subjects of significant concern to the DoD will undergo a prepublication review before release.

c. The Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, as an independent and objective component in the DoD, is exempt from the policy review provisions of this issuance. As necessary, information may be submitted for prepublication review before public release.

d. The public release of official DoD information is limited only as necessary to safeguard information requiring protection in the interest of national security or other legitimate governmental interest, as authorized by DoDDs 5122.05, 5205.02E, 5230.25, 5400.07, 5400.11, 5405.2, and 5500.07; DoDIs 5200.01, 5230.24, and 5230.27; Volumes 1-4 of DoDM 5200.01 and DoDM 5400.07; DoD 5400.11-R; DoD 5500.07-R; Chapter I, Subchapter M, Parts 120 through 130 of Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations; Executive Orders 13526 and 13556; and Section 4353 of Title 22, U.S.C.

However, these individuals remain obligated to ensure their work contains no classified, sensitive or controlled unclassified sources consistent with their nondisclosure agreements.

(2) Will submit materials for prepublication review if they are intended for public release or will be made available in public libraries. Clearance will be granted if classified information is not disclosed, controlled unclassified information is not disclosed, DoD interests are not jeopardized, and the author accurately portrays official policy, even if the author takes issue with that policy.

g. Retired and separated Service members, former DoD employees and contractors, and non-active duty members of the Reserve Components will use the DoD prepublication review process to ensure that information they intend to release to the public does not compromise national security as required by their nondisclosure agreements. Those who forgo the prepublication review process and inadvertently, negligently, or willfully disclose classified information may be subject to an unauthorized disclosure investigation and legal action.

h. DoD personnel, while acting in a private capacity and not in connection with their official duties, may prepare information for public release through non-DoD venues or media.
