SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY. This issuance:

a. Applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense (IG DoD), the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

b. Does not affect authorities or procedures outlined in DoDD 5106.04, DoD Instruction 5505.02, or Title 10, U.S.C.

1.2. POLICY.

a. DoD Components will only conduct criminal investigations if the Component has:

(1) Law enforcement authority established by statute in the U.S.C.;

(2) Inspector General authority, as prescribed by the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended; or

(3) Authority as granted by the Secretary of Defense in accordance with Section 2672 of Title 10, U.S.C.

b. DoD Components without law enforcement authority will be limited to administrative investigations only.

c. DoD Components without law enforcement authority will participate in a criminal investigation only if requested by a defense criminal investigation organization (DCIO) or law enforcement organization. The DCIO or other law enforcement organization will be the lead investigative agency.

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1. IG DoD. The IG DoD will monitor and evaluate compliance with this issuance.

2.2. DOD COMPONENT HEADS. The DoD Component heads will develop procedures to implement the requirements of this issuance and ensure their Components comply with this issuance.

SECTION 3: PROCEDURES

3.1. INITIATING AN INVESTIGATION.

a. DCIOs have:

(1) Investigative responsibility regarding all personnel, property, and resources assigned to their respective Military Services as well as DoD Components where they have been assigned investigative responsibility for criminal matters.

(2) The authority and independent discretion to assume investigative jurisdiction, join an investigation, or monitor the progress of an investigation when it involves personnel, property, or resources associated with a Military Service or other DoD Components in which the DCIO has investigative jurisdiction.

b. When a DoD Component has a non-criminal investigation assumed by a DCIO or another law enforcement organization, all material pertinent to the investigation will be released to the servicing DCIO or law enforcement organization.

c. When they receive a criminal allegation, DoD Components will promptly refer the allegation to either their servicing DCIO or appropriate law enforcement organization. If the referral is declined, the DoD Component can conduct an administrative investigation. During the administrative investigation, the DoD Component must refer any new criminal allegation to the servicing DCIO or law enforcement organization.

d. A DoD Component must be joined by their servicing DCIO or another law enforcement organization if presenting the administrative investigation to a legal office for prosecution consideration.

(1) If the investigation is accepted for prosecution, the servicing DCIO or law enforcement organization will assume responsibility as the lead investigative agency.

(2) If the investigation is not accepted for prosecution, the DoD Component can seek remedies or recoupment through administrative proceedings.

3.2. NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS. DoD Components will identify and document all referrals and acknowledgements of the referral to a DCIO or appropriate law enforcement organization.

3.3. COMMANDER-DIRECTED INQUIRY. This issuance will not supersede the inherent authority of a commander or director to conduct a commander-directed inquiry outside of IG channels, which must be consistent with DoD Instruction 5505.03.

3.4. IG INQUIRY. This issuance will not supersede IG inquiries or non-criminal investigations.

3.5. SENIOR OFFICIAL INVESTIGATIONS. DoD Components must report allegations of misconduct against senior DoD officials to the IG DoD within 5 workdays of receipt, according to DoDD 5505.06.
