SUBJECT: City/Town Councils

Please find out how many city councils there are for villages, towns and cities all across Iraq. We are able to say that 90 percent of the Iraqi people are living under a locally representative governing council, but I don't know how many there are numerically.

Thanks.

SUBJECT: Local (Municipal and Provincial) Councils in Iraq

You asked how many city councils there are for villages, towns, and cities across Iraq.

- There are 266 administrative units (municipalities and villages) in Iraq.
 - The preponderance of those councils are elected or otherwise locally representative. CPA does not have a precise count.
 - Based on CPA data, we estimate that at least 75% of Iraqis live under such councils.
- At the governorate (province) level, all but one of Iraq's eighteen governorates has an elected or representative council or legislature. A council selection process is planned for the last governorate, Al Muthanna.
- Therefore, with the exception of some residents of Al Muthanna (a small province containing about 2% of Iraq's people), all Iraqis live under an elected or representative local or provincial council.

SUBJECT: Iraq City/Town Council Data

My staff is collecting data on city and town councils in Iraq. For instance, in Baghdad, there are 88 neighborhood councils, 9 district councils, and 1 city council. Together, this represents 100% of the Baghdad population.

We are working on getting you nation-wide data. Right now, we only have data on 15 of the 18 provinces. (We are missing data on the three Kurdish provinces.) We will get this to you ASAP.
