SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF SALIH, ALI MOHSEN

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee traveled to Afghanistan to fight in support of the Jihad.
 2. The detainee stated that he felt anyone who took up arms against Muslims was an enemy of Islam and made no distinction between terrorists and regular Muslims.
 3. In June of 2000, the detainee heard from friends that the Taliban in Afghanistan would provide a home for those who chose to live there. In July of 2000, the detainee departed Qatar and traveled through several countries to get to Afghanistan.
 - b. Connections/Associations
 1. The detainee joined the Taliban on 11 September 2001.
 2. While the detainee was training at al Farouq, Usama Bin Laden visited and lectured to the camp.

3. The detainee was recognized by a senior al Qaida lieutenant.

c. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee stated that he could not judge if the 911 terrorist actions were wrong because he is not an Islamic scholar and said, "They were just following the directions of the scholars", "That is what we do."

d. Training

1. The detainee attended al Qaida's al Farouq terrorist training camp in Afghanistan and during the month of July 2001, he observed and listened as Usama Bin Laden gave a speech at the camp about the need for jihad.

e. Intent

1. The detainee was a soldier with the Taliban forces on the front lines near Bagram, Afghanistan.

2. The detainee possessed small notebooks with several pages of phrases hand-written in both French and Arabic languages, as well as drawings of rifles, a cleaver, a spatula, pliers and a glove. Words from one of the pages include "poudre (mélange explosif)," "graphite," "salpêtre," "nitre," "secret," and "electrique."

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee said that he heard from some of his friends that the Taliban, in Afghanistan, would provide a home for those who chose to live there. Ali wanted to move to Afghanistan because he was unhappy with the quality of his life. He also thought he could find a wife more easily there.

b. The detainee further states that he did not like to fire the Kalishnikov rifle.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. The AMO is not an advocate for or against continued detention, nor may the AMO form a confidential relationship with you or represent you in any other matter.

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. In early February of 2001, the detainee met with a Taliban recruiter.
 2. On more than one occasion, the detainee talked to the Taliban recruiter about military training in Afghanistan.
 3. The recruiter provided the detainee instructions on obtaining a Pakistani visa as well as a specific route to take. The detainee traveled to a Taliban guesthouse in Quetta, Pakistan, where the recruiter had sent him.
 4. Many Taliban soldiers armed with Kalashnikov rifles walked in and out of the guesthouse. The detainee told a member of the Taliban guesthouse that he desired to receive military training.
 5. In November of 2001, the Northern Alliance Forces captured the detainee in Konduz, Afghanistan.

b. Training

1. The detainee and about thirty to fifty men were trained near the front line on shooting the Kalashnikov rifle. A Taliban member, who claimed to handle the fighter and killer training of the soldiers, is the one who trained them.

2. The detainee was specifically trained on the Kalashnikov rifle, Beka gun, RPG (rocket propelled grenade) and the bolt action rifle.

3. The detainee was identified as having trained at al Farouq training camp.

c. Connection

1. In March of 2001, the detainee arrived in Kandahar, Afghanistan where he joined the Taliban.

2. The detainee frequently visited Al Iraqi's office.

3. Al Iraqi is an al Qaida terrorist who was part of Usama Bin Laden's inner circle and also commanded 200 Arab and Taliban soldiers in Kabul.

d. Intent

1. The detainee and about twenty to thirty Afghanistan fighters/soldiers traveled to Konduz, Afghanistan and stayed at a Taliban house.

2. The detainee went to the front line located near Kwahajhar, Afghanistan for approximately two weeks and then continued a two week rotating cycle for approximately six and a half months. At the front line, the soldiers used many weapons to include Kalashnikov rifles, PK and RPGs.

3. The detainee fought with the Taliban for approximately 13 months.

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL USAYMI, NAYIF FAHD MUTLIQ

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee did not receive any explosives training. The detainee was issued the Kalashnikov, but never saw any fighting because he was stationed at the rear of the front line.

UNCLASSIFIED

The detainee was never approached to join al Qaida nor did he know anyone who was with al Qaida. The detainee never gave "Bayat" to Usama Bin Laden.

b. A delegation from Saudi Arabia visited GTMO in July 2002 and assessed the detainee as being of low intelligence or law enforcement value to the United States and also as unlikely to pose a terrorist threat to the U.S. or its interests. The Saudi delegation indicated that the Saudi government would be willing to take custody of the detainee for possible prosecution as soon as the United States determined it no longer wanted to hold him.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. 1. In a village located just outside Peshawar, the detainee and eight other fighters moved between four different Lashkar Taiba houses.
2. Lashkar e Tayyiba (LT) ("Army of the Righteous") is listed in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Terrorist Organization Reference Guide as a terrorist organization.
3. The detainee signed up for missionary work with Tabligi Jamiat (JT) to attain entry into Afghanistan.
4. The Jama'at Al Tablighi, a Pakistan based Islamic missionary organization is being used as a cover for action by Islamic Extremists.

d. Intent

1. The detainee stated that he went to Afghanistan to fight the Americans.
2. The detainee decided to go on Jihad after becoming angered over the U.S. air attacks in Afghanistan. He felt it was his duty as a Muslim.
4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:
 - a. The detainee said never heard of al Qaida until after the 11 September 2001 attacks. He is only aware of the attacks on the World Trade Center; he believes the attacks were wrong, because Islam teaches that it is wrong to kill innocent women and children. He does not know anyone that is a member of al Qaida.
 - b. Detainee perceived Bin Laden as one of the Muslim people, who may have been right or may have been wrong as a human being. Detainee also felt that Bin Laden made many mistakes, such as the events of 11 September 2001, which cost the lives of many innocent people.
5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. b. Intent

1. The detainee fought with the Taliban on the front line for two to three months.
2. The detainee then traveled to Pakistan where he surrendered his weapon and was arrested by Pakistani police in December 2001.

c. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee stated, that according to the Quran, if an infidel is residing within an Islamic nation, he is obligated to convert to Islam, pay jizzia, or leave the nation; if the infidel should refuse to do one of the three, he is to be killed.
2. The detainee stated that Jews and Christians are considered infidels because they refuse to accept God's message as contained within the Quran.
3. When asked what should happen to the people of a non-Islamic country that Islam eventually seizes control over, AL-BUSAYSS explained non Muslims will be given the same choices as previously mentioned. AL-BUSAYSS added that if the non-Muslim refuses to pay jizzia, leave the country, or submit to Allah, he would be killed.
4. The detainee further stated that according to the Quran, all infidels must leave the three holy cities of Islam, which he identified as being Mecca, Medina, and Jerusalem; and then stated that although he is not an Islamic scholar, he believes the infidels should be killed if they refuse to leave.
5. The detainee stated he would support a fatwa advocating attacks against infidels within his country.
6. The detainee stated that when he was recruited as a Jihadist fighter his loyalty was to the Taliban government because they followed sharia law, stood for good Muslim values and fought for Islam.
7. The detainee stated he was willing to spend a year of his life as a Jihadist fighter even though he knew he would be in combat and might die.
8. The detainee expects to be rewarded by God when he gets to heaven for his service to Islam by fighting for jihad in Afghanistan.
9. The detainee stated that his perception of the Taliban was that it was a good Islamic government that brought peace, security and justice to the places where it was in control. He added that his opinion of the Taliban never changed.

4. The detainee served as a guard at the Qandahar airport for 39 high-level Taliban personnel.

c. Intent

1. The detainee holds the United States in disdain, admitting that if another call for Jihad were issued he would comply even if it meant killing Americans and destroying U.S. interests.

2. The detainee stated that in Jihad one must choose the right side to join; in a Jihad it is a Muslim's duty to convert the opposing army in the midst of the struggle.

3. Poetry with jihad references was found in the detainee's cell.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee stated that he had provided all of the information he was going to provide. The detainee said he did not care if he was ever allowed to go home.

2. The detainee has called military police at different times: "stupid donkey" and "jack ass". The detainee called one military police officer "a stupid black girl, nigger". The detainee also told a military police officer to "shut up" and proceeded to communicate insults in a different language to the officer.

e. Intelligence Value

1. The detainee may be able to provide specific information on the type of training and personalities involved with the administration of training at the al Farouq camp.

2. The detainee may be able to provide specific info on the recruitment of Saudi Arabians to the Taliban in AF.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer

a. The detainee denied having any knowledge of the attacks in the United States prior to their execution on September 11th, 2001, and also denied knowledge of any rumors or plans of future attacks on the U.S. or U.S. interests.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. The AMO is not an advocate for or against continued detention, nor may the AMO form a confidential relationship with you or represent you in any other matter.

2. The detainee's name was found on a document listing 324 Arabic names, aliases, and nationalities recovered from safe house raids associated with suspected al Qaida in Karachi, Pakistan.

d. Intent

1. If released, the detainee advised that he should be considered a threat to the United States.

2. In 2002, the detainee described at length how much he hated America. He also threatened the interviewing agent with bodily harm.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. "I am not associated with al Qaida."

b. "I never attended any training at the al Farouq training camp in August. I was in Afghanistan, but not at that training camp."

c. "I never said such a thing as I would harm or threaten the United States."

d. The detainee noted that his motivation to travel revolved around his interest in earning money. He explained that he could make more money in handouts from al Qaida in Pakistan and Afghanistan than he could trying to earn an honest wage in his home country.

e. The detainee intended to travel to Afghanistan and undergo training "for kicks", and then return to Yemen with whatever money he might save from "handouts".

3. When detainee was queried regarding his knowledge of the ICRC murder he stated he did not know where "he" was killed. Detainee was then advised that he was not provided information regarding the ICRC's gender.

4. The detainee was identified as having been present at the Taliban Military Headquarters in Kandahar.

5. The detainee participated in a paramilitary band related to Taliban Hezb-e-Islami (HIG).

6. HIG has long established ties with Bin Ladin and is listed in the DHS Terrorist Organization Reference Guide.

c. Intent

1. Detainee admitted he knew that the phone in his possession contained telephone numbers of individuals who were enemies of the United States.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee denied knowing about al Qaida, working for the Taliban, and any association with the murder of the ICRC.

b. The detainee stated he did not use or know how to use the satellite telephone.

c. The detainee denied all knowledge regarding the murder of the Red Cross worker. He advised that if the U.S. Government had proof that he was involved in the murder, then he should be shown that proof. The detainee said that he should otherwise be sent back to Afghanistan.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. 1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee traveled from Algeria, to Saudi Arabia, and then to Pakistan to fight the Jihad.
 2. While in Mecca, Saudi Arabia, the detainee confided in one individual his desire to fight a Jihad.
 3. His priority was to fight in Chechnya but learned that the borders were well guarded; instead he decided to volunteer to fight the Jihad in Kashmir.
 - b. Training

The detainee received light weapons training to include the Kalishnikov (rifle) and de-mining training at a Lashgar-E-Taiba (LET) training camp.

UNCLASSIFIED

c. Connection

1. The detainee advised he was a member of Lashgar-E-Taiba (LET) for a total of one year and seven months.

2. The Lashgar-E-Taiba is the al Qaida affiliated armed wing of a Sunni anti-US missionary organization, which operates primarily in Kashmir but also facilitates the movement of senior al Qaida members.

3. The Lashgar-E-Taiba supported the detainee while he recovered from wounds sustained trying to enter Kashmir.

d. Intent

The detainee said, "that America and Cuba are 'No Good' and that shooting Americans is good. He then raised his arms and pretended to shoot the MPs working the block."

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee stated that he is not a terrorist. He stated that he fought terrorists in 1995. The detainee stated that the interviewers could contact the Algerian Government and they would verify his story.

b. The detainee stated that he would take a polygraph. Prior to becoming a detainee, the detainee stated that he had never met or fought an American. The only Americans that he ever saw were in the movies.

c. The detainee denied ever being in Afghanistan. He stated before he was arrested he never thought about the United States. He stated now he has no words to describe how he feels. He related if he wanted to fight the United States, he would go back to Algeria and fight the Americans there. He went on to say that with his disability, it would be impossible for him to actually fight. He did say that he would only fight against those who fight against Islam, using Russia and Indonesia as an example. He did make the comment that it seems the United States is fighting against Islam and not terrorism.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Connections/Associations
 1. The detainee worked for the Taliban Governor of Shebrehghan and claims to have been the Acting Governor for a period of time. When the Taliban fell, he heeded instructions heard over the radio to surrender. The detainee turned himself in to forces under Ismail Khan. At the time of his surrender he was in possession of six Kalashnikov rifles.
 2. The detainee had a relationship with the Taliban, in that he served for them as a night watchman in Kabul over a two year period, and as a dispute mediator in Shebrehghan.
 - b. Training
 1. The detainee admitted to receiving instruction in the use of the AK-47 and the RPG from his uncle.

REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL ZUBA, SALEH MOHAMED

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - A. Al Zuba is associated with Al Qaida.
 1. Al Zuba admits to being in Tora Bora while Usama Bin Laden (UBL) was present.
 2. Al Zuba admits being at Al Farouq training camp.
 3. Al Zuba was present at a speech by Usama Bin Laden on 14 November 2001, in a camp near Jalalabad, Afghanistan.
 - B. Al Zuba engaged in hostilities against the US or its coalition partners.
 1. Al Zuba participated in the battle for Tora Bora.
 2. Al Zuba was captured while in possession of an AK-47.
 - C. Detainee is connected with Al Qaida.
 1. Detainee's name or alias was listed on a chart of captured Mujahidin found on a hard drive associated with Khalid Shaykh Muhammad.

D. Detainee's Conduct: Al Zuba has a history of noncompliance. Although Al Zuba's reported occurrences have typically been refusal of meds and meals, he has also had incidents requiring physical restraint by guards and appears to be a leader on the blocks.

E. Based upon a review of recommendations from U.S. agencies and classified and unclassified documents, Al Zuba is regarded as a continued threat to the United States and its Allies.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

A. Medical Status:

1. Doctor DAIF ALLAH JAYEED, in Sept 2001, informed Al Zuba that he should travel to Karachi, Pakistan in order to have a procedure performed which would clean out his arteries thus allowing more blood to flow to his heart. JAYEED informed Al Zuba that the medical procedure was cheaper to have done in Pakistan and would have a greater chance of success than if it was done in Yemen.

2. Al Zuba was told that he did not have enough money for the operation, but that he could either return to Yemen or travel to Afghanistan to obtain additional money from a charity foundation to cover the cost of the operation.

3. Al Zuba has known coronary artery disease with symptoms for 8-10 years. He had a catheterization in Yemen, but "not successful". He had stents place in two vessels in March 2003; he had an occluded, non-operable right coronary artery. Since then has had some episodes of chest pain, but no myocardial infarction. Al Zuba has a history of hypercholesterolemia and hypertension, also with H. pylori and history of epigastric pain.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. during the middle of 2001.

d. Combatant Status Review Tribunal

The CSRT concluded the detainee's intention to travel to Afghanistan was to participate in weapons training at al Farouq, a known al Qaida training facility.

e. Other Relevant Data

The detainee's country of origin does not participate in joint enforcement of the global war on terrorism.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee, in his oral statement, denied being a member of al Qaida and denied the veracity of most allegations made against him in the unclassified summary.

b. The detainee related he went to Afghanistan reluctantly.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. 1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state or to a third state; (2) transfer you to your home state, or a third state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state, or the third state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee left Saudi Arabia in July 2001 after being inspired by a posted flyer from a missionary group called The Al Haramain Al Sharifier Organization.
 2. Executive Order 13224, which blocks property and prohibits transactions with persons who commit, threaten to commit, or support terrorism, designates al Haramayn as a global terrorist entity.
 3. The detainee used his savings of approximately $7,000 U.S. dollars to travel to Afghanistan from Saudi Arabia via Bahrain; Karachi, Pakistan, Quetta, Pakistan; then to Kabul, Afghanistan.
 - b. Connections/Associations
 1. The detainee is a member of the NGO al Wafa.
 2. Al Wafa has been designated a terrorist organization.
 3. The detainee admits meeting a man named "Suhaib" in Kabul. Suhaib identified himself as being from Saudi Arabia and a member of Al Wafa. Suhaib assisted the detainee with a money exchange.

4. Executive Order 13224, which blocks property and prohibits transactions with persons who commit, threaten to commit, or support terrorism, designates al Wafa as a global terrorist entity.

c. Intent

1. Upon arriving in Kabul, the detainee asked about the location of the Taliban Headquarters.
2. The detainee lived in Afghanistan for approximately five to six months. During this time, the detainee traveled with a convoy of Taliban troops and slept in Taliban facilities.
3. The detainee carried a weapon in Afghanistan.
4. The detainee went to the Taliban frontlines in the Takhar region.
5. The detainee was identified as a fighter and occasional leader of approximately thirty men on the frontlines in the Talaquan, Afghanistan region.
6. The detainee was present and wounded during military operations at Khowst, Afghanistan on or about 5 Dec 2001.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. In June 2003, the detainee stated he was very angry and wanted to kill the translator and the interviewers.
2. The detainee stated he was not a soldier or a fighter for the Taliban, since that was not the Fatwah he answered. However, if he were, he would be proud of it and admit it and be a martyr for that cause.
4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:
 - a. The detainee claimed to have been involved only in humanitarian work in Afghanistan and has no affiliation with al Qaida. He claimed he was not involved with any armed forces. He did admit to having frequent contact with Taliban forces while in Afghanistan, but claimed to have had such contact solely for protection purposes.
 - b. The detainee denied meeting any al Qaida members or having attended any training camps.
 - c. The detainee claimed he was approached by an Afghan named "Issac" and was asked to

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. In October 2000, the detainee left Belgium for Afghanistan, traveling through Iran.
 2. The detainee wanted to go to a military training camp in Afghanistan, but was unable to due to malaria.
 3. When captured, the detainee had a Casio watch.
 4. The Casio watch has been incorporated into improvised explosive devices that have been linked to al Qaida and radical-Islamic terrorists.
 5. At the time of his capture, the detainee possessed a letter from a known member of al Qaida that contained a hand-written quote from Usama Bin Ladin; when roughly translated said, "Destroy their economy, crash their planes, and kill them wherever you find them, at land, sea and air."

b. Connection

1. The detainee was a member of the Theological Commission of the Moroccan Islamic Combatant Group (GICM).
2. The GICM is associated with and supported by other known terrorist groups, including the: Libyan Islamic Fighting Group (LIFG), Hizb-E Islami Gulbuddin (HIG), al Qaida, Egyptian Islamic Jihad (EIJ), Egyptian National Tarouat Salah, the Taliban, and the Algerian Armed Islamic Group (GIA).
3. The GICM allies itself with al Qaida and has supplied personnel for al Qaida for operations abroad.
4. The GICM, with assistance from al Qaida, planned to carry out attacks against U.S. citizens in foreign countries.
5. Members of the GICM trained in an area between Kabul and the front lines against the Northern Alliance, where they fired AK-47 rifles.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. CSRT

1. The detainee denied any connection to the GICM during his CSRT.
2. The detainee insists that the letter containing the hand-written quote from Usama Bin Ladin, that was in his possession during capture, was not intended for him, but was an advertisement from a newspaper.
5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding.
