Combatant Status Review Tribunal
Notice to Detainees

You are being held as an enemy combatant by the United States Armed Forces. An enemy combatant is an individual who was part of or supporting Taliban or al Qaeda forces, or associated forces that are engaged in hostilities against the United States or its coalition partners. The definition includes any person who has committed a belligerent act or has directly supported such hostilities.

The U.S. Government will give you an opportunity to contest your status as an enemy combatant. Your case will go before a Combatant Status Review Tribunal, composed of military officers. This is not a criminal trial and the Tribunal will not punish you, but will determine whether you are properly held. The Tribunal will provide you with the following process:

1. You will be assigned a military officer to assist you with the presentation of your case to the Tribunal. This officer will be known as your Personal Representative. Your Personal Representative will review information that may be relevant to a determination of your status. Your Personal Representative will be able to discuss that information with you, except for classified information.

2. Before the Tribunal proceeding, you will be given a written statement of the unclassified factual basis for your ~~classification~~ status as an enemy combatant.

3. You will be allowed to attend all Tribunal proceedings, except for proceedings involving deliberation and voting by the members, and testimony or other matters that would compromise U.S. national security if you attended. You will not be forced to attend, but if you choose not to attend, the Tribunal will be held in your absence. Your Personal Representative will attend in either case.

4. You will be provided with an interpreter during the Tribunal hearing if necessary.

5. You will be able to present evidence to the Tribunal, including the testimony of witnesses. If those witnesses you propose are not reasonably available, their written testimony may be sought. You may also present written statements and other documents. You may testify before the Tribunal but will not be compelled to testify or answer questions.

As a matter separate from these Tribunals, United States courts have jurisdiction to consider petitions brought by enemy combatants held at this facility that challenge the legality of their detention. You will be notified in the near future what procedures are available should you seek to challenge your detention in U.S. courts. Whether or not you decide to do so, the Combatant Status Review Tribunal will still review your status as an enemy combatant.

If you have any questions about this notice, your Personal Representative will be able to answer them.

On 17 August 2002, at / approx. 1930-1945 we were serving chow to the Detainees in (b)(2) block. I((b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)) was the block NCO, and was working with (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) and (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C). (b)(1),(b)(2),(b)(1) Sec 1.4 A had just tried to spit on me, while walking out of the block. (b)(2) had earlier lost his (b)(2) by 3 days. This was a result of his actions earlier. (b)(1),(b)(2),(b)(1) Sec 1.4 A had repeatedly talked across the block, and throwing water on (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C), an interpretor and myself. (b)(2) spit on (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) as he walked out of the cell block. When he turned to look at the detainee he was spit on again. I told him that we were going to (b)(2) with the (b)(2). I gave him the (b)(2) and had (b)(2) for a short period and he then sat on his bunk. The hose was put up and (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) was sent to Medical to be cleaned and checked. I then requested the duty officer and gaurd commander to the block. Upon their arrival they were brief on what happened. I was directed by the GC to have (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) go to the CP and write a statement. The GC said he only needed one statement and to put us as witnesses to the entire event.

that on 17 Sep 02 at approximately 2135 hours, (b)(2) Block at Camp Delta Ops began banging on their cells, yelling and inciting a disturbance. They would slam their hands on the cells, kick the cells and use towels tied with donuts in them to hit the cells. They yelled and threw water also. Information gathered from detainees was that (b)(2) blocks had been told from (b)(2) Blocks that the air-conditioning at (b)(2) Blocks was turned off. (b)(2) Blocks became aggravated then (b)(2) block (b)(2) Blocks told this to (b)(2) Block who became even louder. (b)(2) Blocks detainees also complained of the first two shifts harassing them and that these actions along with the air being turned off at (b)(2) Blocks made them mad. (b)(2) Blocks detainees "apologized" to our shift for getting mad because we are good MP's and don't harass them. The water was cut off at 2135. /// End of statement. //

While walking the tier, I observed ISN# (b)(2) -000693DP performing martial arts in his cell. I observed him kicking the beanhole and kicking his hand. I then told him to stop and that he wasn't supposed to do that. Once I told him to stop he did, but when I (continued (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)) walking down the tier, he commenced back to kicking at his hand and at the beanhole. ISN# (b)(3) -000693 failed to comply with my order (b)(3):10 USC §130b,(b)(6),(b)(7)(C).
