TALKING POINTS

- I would like to express my deep appreciation for your contributions to the Nogun-Ri review and to the US-ROK alliance.
- The close bilateral cooperation that has taken place during the Nogun-Ri review reflects the trust and friendship that has been built in over fifty years of partnership.
- The Department of Defense has employed tremendous resources to ensuring that the review was as thorough and accurate as possible.
- As we strive to complete the final tasks of the review, we welcome the wise advice and counsel that you have given our team.
- As respected members of Korean society, you have a very important role to play as the Nogun-Ri review is concluded.
- We hope that you will relay to the Korean public that nothing can diminish the shared sacrifices on the Korean and American people during the Korean War and that the everlasting strength of the ROK-US alliance can never be broken.
