Fiscal Years 1950 – 2022

Fiscal Year 2022 Edition

Introduction

The Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 Edition of the Historical Sales Book (HSB) is a by-country, international organization, and program summarization of United States Government (USG) Foreign Military Sales (FMS) from FY 1950 through FY 2022. It also includes information to better understand annual sales data released by the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA).

FMS is a security assistance program authorized by the Arms Export Control Act (AECA) and conducted on the basis of formal contracts and agreements between the USG and authorized recipient governments or international organizations. FMS includes government-to-government sales of defense articles or services from current Department of Defense (DOD) stocks or DOD managed contracts.

The Historical Sales Book is divided into four sections

- Sales
- Appendix
- Glossary of Terms
- References

Sales

This section includes an alphabetical list of all the countries, international organizations and programs that use the Foreign Military Sales Process, as well as their official sales figures for each FY. Sales from FY 1950 through FY 2017 are consolidated in one column. The most recent five FYs are listed separately and a total column for FYs 1950 -2022 is also included.

A description of the column headings follows:

Country – This lists the names of every country and international organization that has purchased defense articles and services from the USG using the FMS system. Some countries and organizations listed have multiple FMS accounts, while others benefit from Building Partnership Capacity and Foreign Area Assistance programs solely dedicated to their country. Sales numbers for each account and program are included in the sales figures listed. For a complete listing of each country's accounts and programs that benefit them, please see the Appendix. Other BPC and FAA programs not solely dedicated to a particular country are also listed in this column and in the appendix. A description of each program is also included in the Glossary of Terms.

Combatant Command – The DOD has delineated six areas of responsibility with a regional focus known as Combatant Commands. Each country and its dedicated programs fall into one of these six regions. Those programs not solely dedicated to a particular country are listed as non-regional.

State Department Region – Like the DOD, the State Department (DOS) has divided the world into a number of regions that include each country and its dedicated programs. Those programs not solely dedicated to a particular country are listed as non-regional.

Continent – The continent where each country and its dedicated programs is located. Those programs not solely dedicated to a particular country are listed as N/A.

Fiscal Years 1950 To 2017 – Sales from these years are consolidated into this column.

Fiscal Year 18-22 – The Five most recent years of sales are listed separately. Future editions will display the five most recent years, while year six data will be added to the previous consolidated total column.

Fiscal Years 1950 to 2022 – A total of every year since 1950.

Appendix

This is an alphabetical list of every country, international organization and program listed in the Sales Section. Each country and program are listed with each country code and the name of the other accounts/programs included in its totals. For more details about the programs listed, see the Glossary of Terms.

Glossary of Terms

This is a listing of words and program names, as well as the meaning or history of each, used throughout this document that may be unfamiliar to those without a working knowledge of Foreign Military Sales.

"Sales numbers include not only new sales implemented in a given fiscal year, but also any adjustments (increases or decreases) to existing programs via Amendments or Modifications that were also implemented that fiscal year. Negative sales numbers for a country, in a fiscal year, is an indication that the amount of program decreases (via Amendments and Modifications) were more than the combined new sales and positive adjustments."
