FOR: DEPUTY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

FROM: Tina W. Jona Tina Jona

SUBJECT: $400 million State Department Foreign Military Financing Request for the Afghan National Army in Fiscal Year 2005

- On August 23, you asked why the State Department requested only $400 million in Foreign Military Financing (FMF) funds for the Afghan National Army (ANA) in Fiscal Year (FY) 2005.
- The Department of Defense (DoD) requested that the State Department program $668 million for the ANA in FY 2005, to include $644 million in FMF, and $24 million in Peacekeeping Operations funds.
- The relevant State Department offices supported these funding levels through the State Department budget process.
- During budget negotiations, the following funding allocations for the ANA were assigned in order to take pressure off of the FMF top line:
 - $400 million in FMF.
 - $150 million in Afghan Freedom Support Act (AFSA) authority, to be funded by the DoD.
 - $150 million in FY 2005 Train and Equip Authority, to be funded by the DoD.
