Dear Secretary Schlesinger:

It gives me great honor and pleasure to invite Your Excellency to the annual Republic of Korea-United States Security Consultative Meeting for 1975 to be held in Seoul. If this is convenient, 26 and 27 August (Tuesday and Wednesday) are proposed as the dates of the Meeting. I would be pleased if you could plan a tour of visits with selected military activities and other points of interest in Korea as desired, either prior to or after the Meeting. While the format of the Meeting should be worked out by our mutual staffs, please feel free to call Major General CHANG Bong Chon, my Defense Attache in Washington, about any desire or suggestions that you might have concerning your visit as well as the Meeting. General Chang would be only delighted to be at your service.

In the meantime, it is with sincere wishes for another successful Meeting and with warm anticipations that Mrs. Suh and I look forward to welcoming Your Excellency and Mrs. Schlesinger to Seoul in August.

With high personal esteem and regard,

Sincerely,

SUH JYONG CHUL
Minister of National Defense
