Dear Sir:

I received, on 28 November 2011, reviewed and evaluated the enclosures supporting the identification of CIL 1995-114-I-10 as the remains of PFC James Rickey Maxwell. (b)(6)
U.S. Marine Corps.

Comments: This identification rests on the results derived from comparisons between the mtDNA sequence of the CIL 1995-114-I-10 samples and the mtDNA sequences from PFC Maxwell's mother and brother. This is supported by the J-2 Report and other circumstantial evidence.

Recommendation: Based on my review of the materials submitted, I recommend that the remains presented here and designated as CIL 1995-114-I-10 be identified as the remains of PFC James Rickey Maxwell, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps.

Dear Sir:

I received, on 28 November 2011, reviewed and evaluated the enclosures supporting the identification of CIL 1995-114-G-01 as the Group Remains from an incident involving:

2nd Lt Richard (NMN) Vandeguer, (b)(6), U.S. Air Force Reserves
HM1 Bernard (NMN) Gause, Jr., (b)(6), U.S. Navy
HN Ronald James Manning, (b)(6), U.S. Navy
LCpl Gregory Scott Copenhaver, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
LCpl Andres (NMN) Garcia, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Daniel Andrew Benedett, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Lynn (NMN) Blessing, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Walter (NMN) Boyd, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC James Joseph Jacques, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC James Rickey Maxwell, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Richard William Rivenburgh, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Antonio Ramos Sandoval, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Kelton Rena Turner, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps

Comments: From the data submitted, all reasonable methods and techniques have been employed in an effort to segregate and identify the remains associated with this case. This identification rests on the considerable circumstantial evidence primarily derived from J-2, Search and Recovery, Material Evidence, Forensic Anthropology, and Forensic Odontology Reports. The extant unidentified remains could represent any or all of the above individuals involved in this incident.

Recommendation: Based on my review of the materials submitted, I recommend that the remains presented here and designated as CIL 1995-114-G-01 be identified as the Group Remains from an incident involving:

2nd Lt Richard (NMN) Vandegeer, (b)(6), U.S. Air Force Reserves
HM1 Bernard (NMN) Gause, Jr., (b)(6), U.S. Navy
HN Ronald James Manning, (b)(6), U.S. Navy
LCpl Gregory Scott Copenhaver, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
LCpl Andres (NMN) Garcia, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Daniel Andrew Benedett, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
PFC Lynn (NMN) Blessing, (b)(6), U.S. Marine Corps
