Retirement

Fellow soldiers, sailors, airman, and to the friends not in uniform,

Today is my last day on the network and on the 31st, my last day in the Army, after more than 37 years of service. I feel humbled and honored to have served this long and have met so many wonderful people such as you. I'm certain I've missed many more and hope to catch up with all of them at some point in the future. I just wanted to say thank you for your service, friendship, mentorship, and support to me for all these years. I could not have done it without you. I've had an awesome time, flown with the best, seen some great sights, accomplished much, served with the finest, and I have but a few regrets.

It's been an interesting year for me and one I didn't expect. I can say that you do still live and learn no matter how much you think you know and how old you are. I've learned trust should not be easily given but each of you have earned mine. I wish you all well in the future and in your careers. Those still in the service will see interesting times ahead but I leave knowing our country and its security are in good hands.

I plan to celebrate the end of the year and the start of my retirement in my home state in the Big Apple watching the ball drop in Times Square (bucket list) with the most important person in my life, what else can anyone ask for. I plan to stay in the DC area for some time and if I can be of any help, please feel free to reach out, don't be a stranger, I have a bar at the house and beer tap....My email is (b)(6)

I wish you all the best and again thank you for your service, friendship, and kindness to me!

Above the Best and all the best,
Mike

Not sure yet. Hope you are enjoying warm Wx there.

Mike you've had a great career and one you can be proud of. I have a good feeling that you'll have a great New Year. Congratulations enjoy NYC.

I'm assuming by the sound of your message that you will be in DC not elsewhere in the world.
