(SECRET//NOFORN//NF) 1. (SECRET//NOFORN//NF) [REDACTED] 2. (SECRET//NOFORN//NF) Army commander Gen Videla, the leader of the group of moderates thus far reluctant to move against Mrs. Peron, reportedly has become convinced that if he again puts off the move, subordinate officers would act to force his hand and possibly jeopardize his control of the situation and the postcoup government. The army high command has been alarmed over recent arrests of leftists in key provinces that are believed to have been ordered by subordinate elements without high command approval.
