ARGENTINA

INCREASED MILITARY DISCONTENT WITH GOVERNMENT.

DECLASSIFIED IN PART
Authority: EO 13526
Chief, Records & Declass Div, WHS
Date: JAN 17 2018

~~(S/NED/INICOMT)~~ Increasing public dissatisfaction with the country's economy and current political situation has prompted the armed forces to become more critical of Mrs. Peron's government.

~~(S/NED)~~ Recent economic decrees have caused prices to skyrocket and given impetus to labor demands for immediate wage increases. As a result, the government is now less stable than before the austerity measures were invoked. In order to prevent labor's taking its grievances to the street, the government will probably compromise with the wage demands by offering a 50 percent increase.

~~(S/NED/INICOMT)~~ In a possibly related development, coup rumors appear more prevalent now, although there is no apparent consensus as to the type and timing of a military intervention. Nonetheless, some officers apparently are seeking to justify an early involvement rather than waiting until more severe remedial actions would be required. Most senior officers, on the other hand, still seem reluctant to become involved again in political matters. Consequently, while the military can be expected to monitor the situation carefully, they will probably not intervene unless it feels that it has a popular mandate. ~~(NOES 2-DECLASSIFY upon notification of originator)~~
