Argentina

(N) Why Military Security Assistance to Argentina

- Together with Chile, geographically dominates the ocean routes between the South Atlantic and Pacific Oceans that transit the Drake Passage, Beagle Channel and Straits of Magellan.
- Argentina has important influence in South America because of its relatively advanced economy and culture.
- Preempt incursion of third powers with interests inimical to US.
- Maintain US as predominant influence on the Argentina military.
- Sustain Argentina's capabilities to counter insurgent threat.
- Contribute to modest modernization efforts.

(N) Threat

Urban terrorism, including bombings, murders, kidnappings, as well as raids on urban military installations, has been a serious problem in Argentina since April 1969. Rural insurgency also is becoming a serious problem. Although domestic tranquility has been disturbed by the prolonged terrorism, Argentina's police and armed forces will be able to contain insurgent activity for the foreseeable future.

(N) US Military Presence (as of 31 Dec 75)

There are 39 US military personnel in Argentina.

- 1/ Assistance In Kind (AIK). Host government contribution (other than currency) toward operating cost of MAAG.
- 2/ Host government financed through FMS procedures.
- 3/ Host government contributed currency is deposited with US Treasury, except for Kuwait, in which case it is reimbursed to appropriate departments under FMS procedures.
- 4/ Net cost to the US Government. MAP cost minus contributed currency.
- 5/ Service-to-service agreements arranged pursuant to 10 USC 712 (dtd May, 1926) between the USG and these countries call for the host country to pay to the USG a portion of the costs of some of our personnel. The agreements are different in each country. The procedures for collecting these obligations are under intensive review in the Departments of Defense and State. Estimates of amounts to be collected will be provided at the completion of the inter-agency review.
