

Department of Defense Response to USAI-Related FOIA Request

Key Points

- The Center for Public Integrity (CPI) filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) lawsuit in federal district court against the Department of Defense (DoD) and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) seeking certain communications relating to the Ukraine Security Assistance Initiative (USAI).
- Specifically, CPI seeks all USAI-related communications between the DoD comptroller's office and OMB, the Secretary of Defense, and the Deputy Secretary of Defense between April 2019 and November 19, 2019.
- On November 25, 2019, the court ordered DoD and OMB to produce at least half of the requested documents by Thursday, December 12, and the remainder by Friday, December 20.
- In compliance with the court's order, DoD produced the following 146 pages and will produce all remaining pages by the court's December 20 deadline.
- This production is consistent with DoD's standard practice of invoking all reasonably available exemptions under the FOIA statute.
- These exemptions include personal privacy, inter-agency and intra-agency deliberative process, attorney-client privilege, and sensitive foreign government information, among others.
- This production was coordinated with OMB and serves as the response to an identical request directed to OMB.

Attached potential vendors as discussed. Most, but not all, are U.S.

For example, Rohde&Schwarz and Draeger are German companies. Kongsberg is a Norwegian company. But they have U.S. subsidy companies.
