NOTE: The following action will be taken depending on the media as applicable:

Paper STR Information:

- If the member does not initiate a VA claim upon date of separation, the Services shall transfer the paper STR information to Veterans Affairs Records Management Center (VA RMC) or by commercial vendor to VA Records Management Center.
- If the member initiates a VA claim, the Services shall transfer the paper STR information upon date of separation to a specific Veterans Affairs Regional Office (VARO) of jurisdiction.
- The VA shall transfer the paper STR information to the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC)/ Federal Records Centers (FRC) when VA no longer has a business need for the paper STR information.
- At the time of transfer of the paper STR information to the NPRC/FRC, the transferring agency, VA, DoW, and the Military Services shall adhere to NARA standards and guidance in effect at the time.
- Transferred paper STR information may be recalled by the Military Services from the VA/NPRC/FRC to support a business need.

Scanned Paper:

- The DoW and the Military Services shall destroy the paper STR information only after completion of scanned electronic Imaging and upon verification by DoW and the Military Services that an Image is readily available for access by authorized users in a repository through a portal or any other mode of access.
- Such verification may occur during the conversion process or via a quality assurance check.

The scanned electronic STR information will be maintained as the record copy.
